

Q1038: While working for your employer, a client wrote you a glowing letter of appreciation for your excellent customer service. He has written to thank you for the excellent customer service you provided and has asked you to share the letter with your colleagues. What should you do?

A1038: DO NOT share the letter with your colleagues. The letter is a personal communication from a client to you, and it is not appropriate to share it with others. You should keep the letter confidential and use it as a reference for your own performance.
