

REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

Here are some situations where reporting suspicious activity is highly recommended:

Phishing Attempts: If you receive an email, message, or phone call that seems suspicious and requests sensitive information or directs you to click on unfamiliar links.

Unauthorized Access Attempts: If you notice repeated failed login attempts, unusual account activity, or signs of someone trying to gain unauthorized access to systems or accounts.

Malware or Ransomware Infections: If you suspect that your computer or network has been infected with malware or ransomware.

Unusual Network Traffic: If you observe unusual or suspicious network activity, such as large amounts of data being sent or received from unfamiliar sources.

Data Breaches: If you become aware of a potential data breach or unauthorized disclosure of sensitive information.

Social Engineering Attempts: If someone tries to manipulate or deceive you into revealing sensitive information, such as passwords or confidential data, report it immediately to prevent potential harm.

Unusual System Behavior: If you notice unexpected system errors, crashes, or other abnormal behavior that could be indicative of a security incident.

Physical Security Breaches: If you witness unauthorized individuals accessing secure areas, tampering with equipment, or engaging in suspicious activities, report it.

Madness and Crime Philip Bean,2013-05-13 This book provides an authoritative and highly readable review of the relationship between madness and crime by one of the leading authorities in the field The book is divided into four parts each essay focusing on selected features of madness which have relevance to contemporary society Part 1 is about madness itself exploring three main models cognitive statistical and emotional Part 2 is a short discussion on madness genius and creativity Part 3 is about the much neglected area of compulsion an issue that has largely disappeared from public debate The mad may have moved from victim to violator yet fundamental questions remain in particular how to justify compulsory detention and who should undertake the process The answers to these questions have sociological ethical and jurisprudential elements and cannot just be resolved by reference to medical authorities Part 4 is about the links between madness and crime focusing less on the question and nature of criminal responsibility and the various defences that go with this more on the links between madness and crime and which particular crimes are linked with which types of disorder
