Process The Writing Lives Of Great Authors:

Process Sarah Stodola, 2015 Ernest Hemingway Zadie Smith Joan Didion Franz Kafka David Foster Wallace and more In Process acclaimed journalist Sarah Stodola examines the creative methods of literature's most transformative figures Each chapter contains a mini biography of one of the world's most lauded authors focused solely on his or her writing process Unlike how-to books that preach writing techniques or rules Process puts the true methods of writers on display in their most captivating incarnation within the context of the lives from which they sprang Drawn from both existing material and original research and interviews Stodola brings to light the fascinating unique and illuminating techniques behind these literary behemoths The Writer's Process Anne Janzer, 2016-06-07 Want to be a better writer Perfect your process For example do you fear the blank page You may be skipping the essential early phases of writing Do you generate swarms of ideas but never publish anything You need strategies to focus and persist to the finish When you learn to work with your brain instead of against it you'll get more done and have more fun Master the inner game of writing The Writer's Process combines proven practices of successful authors with cognitive science research about how our minds work You'll learn How to invite creativity and flow into the writing process Why separating the writing process into different steps makes you more productive How to overcome writer's block negative feedback and distractions How to make time for writing in a busy interrupt-driven life It's filled with ideas that you can put into practice immediately The Writer's Process is a 2017 Readers Favorite Gold Medal Winner and a Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Silver Award winner Secret Lives of Great Authors Robert Schnakenberg, 2014-03-18 The strange but true tales of the rumors idiosyncrasies and feuds of literary legends including Agatha Christie F Scott Fitzgerald William Shakespeare and more This fascinating and shocking tour through the lives of classic literature icons is the perfect stocking stuffer for book lovers and fans of little-known history With outrageous and uncensored profiles of everyone from William Shakespeare to Thomas Pynchon Secret Lives of Great Authors tackles all the tough questions your high school teachers were afraid to ask What's the deal with Lewis Carroll and little girls Is it true that J D Salinger drank his own urine How many women and men did Lord Byron actually sleep with And why was Ayn Rand such a big fan of Charlie's Angels Classic literature was never this much fun in school Authors included William Shakespeare Lord Byron Honoré de Balzac Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens The Brontë Sisters Henry David Thoreau Walt Whitman Leo Tolstoy Emily Dickinson Lewis Carroll Louisa May Alcott Mark Twain Oscar Wilde Arthur Conan Doyle W B Yeats H G Wells Gertrude Stein Jack London Virginia Woolf James Joyce Franz Kafka T S Eliot Agatha Christie J R R Tolkien F Scott Fitzgerald William Faulkner Ernest Hemingway Ayn Rand Jean Paul Sartre Richard Wright William Burroughs Carson McCullers J D Salinger Jack Kerouac Kurt Vonnegut Toni Morrison Sylvia Plath Thomas Pynchon Steinbeck's Imaginarium Robert DeMott, 2022-11-15 In Steinbeck's Imaginarium Robert DeMott delves into the imaginative creative and sometimes neglected aspects of John Steinbeck's writing DeMott positions Steinbeck as a prophetic voice for today as much as he was for the Depression era 1930s as the essays explore the often unknown or unacknowledged elements of Steinbeck's artistic career that deserve closer attention. He writes about the determining scientific influences such as quantum physics and ecology in Cannery Row and considers Steinbeck's addiction to writing through the lens of the extensive obsessive full-length journals that he kept while writing three of his best-known novels: The Grapes of Wrath, The Wayward Bus, and East of Eden. DeMott insists that these monumental works of fiction all comprise important statements on his creative process and his theory of fiction writing. DeMott further blends his personal experience as a lifelong angler with a reading of several neglected fishing episodes in Steinbeck's work. Collectively, the chapters illuminate John Steinbeck as a fully conscious, self-aware, literate experimental novelist whose talents will continue to warrant study and admiration for years to come.

Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond, 2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice, highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available, creating new visions for social change. Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative, the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers, narrative and linguistic constraints, and the slippery ground of memory, as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being.

Authors on Writing B. Tomlinson, 2005-03-01 Drawing on some 3,000 published interviews with contemporary authors, Authors on Writing: Metaphors and Intellectual Labor reveals new ways of conceiving of writing as intellectual labor. Authors' metaphorical stories about composing highlight not interior worlds but socially situated cultures of composing and apparatuses of authorship. Through an original method of interpreting metaphorical stories, Tomlinson argues that writing is both an individual activity and a collective practice, a solitary activity that depends upon rich, sustained, and complex social networks, institutions, and beliefs. This new book draws upon interviews with writers including Seamus Heaney, Roald Dahl, Samuel Beckett, Bret Easton Ellis, John Fowles, Allen Ginsburg, Alice Walker, and Gore Vidal.

Literary Festival is held twice a year in China and a number of events bring together Chinese and European Union authors. The Festival programme is aimed at Chinese audiences and events take place in two Chinese cities. The aim of the scientific book is to present the process of developing a research methodology for measuring the success of international festivals, establish preconditions for a broader application of the established and tested methodology and to ask the audience and experts whether the Festival has achieved its goal, mission and vision. The research methodology measures the views of three groups of stakeholders of The EU China International Literary Festival: n 72 Chinese Festival visitors and two groups of authors representing experts for the Festival under consideration, i.e. European and Chinese authors. As the audience was able to follow the Festival at the venue n 2 305 or online n 110 710 views on the Festival were collected from members of all aforementioned groups, they were analysed and guidelines and recommendations for raising the quality success of the Festival were developed. The proposed methodology represents a useful material for future researchers of festival phenomena in developing a multidimensional instrument to measure the success of a festival. By applying the proposed methodology, researchers are able to find out the views of the authors, exhibitors, the audience and the organisers of the Festival on the festival dimensions. This makes an additional contribution to the promotion and popularisation of EU literature and authors, the chosen theme of the Festival, the group of stakeholders and encourages cross-cultural cooperation.
