Positioning the Brand Rik Riezebos, Jaap van der Grinten, 2012-03-15 Positioning is hot Not only in the realm of consumer goods manufacturers but also for other companies institutions governments and even individual persons An explosion of good quality products on the market and targeted media and advertising campaigns has led to an increasing interest from organizations as to how to strategically position their brand Up to now only a few books on positioning were published Positioning the Brand picks up the gauntlet with an approach based on two fundamental choices Firstly the book was written from the perspective of the brand manager and has therefore been shaped as a practical roadmap Secondly this book advocates a new stance on positioning teaching the reader to look from the inside out instead of adopting the usual outside in methodology This inside out approach departs from an analysis of the corporate identity enabling better fulfilment of external positioning and ensuring internal support This book is intended for future managers marketing professionals and communication professionals responsible for the commercial success and reputation of a brand The contents have a practical set up reinforced by engaging examples and enable the reader to individually complete a positioning process

Communities Of Innovation: How Organizations Harness Collective Creativity And Build Resilience Patrick Cohendet, Madanmohan Rao, Ruiz Emilie, Benoit Sarazin, Laurent Simon, 2021-04-12 This is a landmark study that tackles an important black box in innovation studies i.e. communities of innovation While conventional work focuses on formal organizations a select group of academic leaders highlights the various communities that cut across firms and form the vital underground for processes of creativity and ideation While targeted toward business and management this volume is a must read for all social scientists interested in the dynamics underlying the current knowledge economy Journal of Economic Geography This book describes the important role played by communities in innovation processes and how organizations can benefit from it A community brings together individuals who share a common passion for a given area of knowledge and can contribute to innovation at different levels capitalization of good practices problem solving sharing of expertise or development of new and creative ideas The literature has progressively identified many variants of communities such as communities of practice epistemic communities communities of interest virtual communities etc These forms of communities differ regarding the type of the specialized activities of knowledge on which they focus As practitioners and academics increasingly emphasized the needs of collaborative approaches in innovation they progressively challenged the traditional idea that innovation is mainly generated by hierarchical corporate departments and highlighted the active role that communities play in innovation processes The aim of this book is to shed light using multiple examples on the proactive and fundamental role of communities in the new innovation practices of organizations AutoAsia ,1999 Бизнес-журнал, 2004/08 Бизнес-журнал,
