Legends of Our Times Morgan Baillargeon,Leslie Tepper,2011-11-01 Throughout the world the cowboy is an instantly recognized symbol of the North American West Legends of Our Times breaks the stereotype of cowboys and Indians to show an almost unknown side of the West. It tells the story of some of the first cowboys, Native peoples of the northern Plains and Plateau. Through stories, poetry, art, and reminiscences in this lavishly illustrated work, Native people invite the reader on a fascinating journey into the world of ranching and rodeo. The book also presents the special relationship between Native people and animals such as the horse, buffalo, deer, and dog, which have always played an important role in Native spiritual and economic life. By the mid nineteenth century, Native people were highly valued for their skills in horse breeding and herding and could take advantage of new economic opportunities in the emerging ranching industry. Faced with limited resources, competition for land, and control by governments and Indian agents, many Native people still managed to develop their own herds or to find work as cowboys. As the ways of the Old West changed, new forms of entertainment and sport evolved. Impresarios such as Buffalo Bill Cody invented the Wild West show, employing Native actors and stunt performers to dramatize scenes from the history of the West and to demonstrate the friendly competitions that cowboys enjoyed at the end of a long round up or cattle drive. The popularity of rodeos also grew within Native communities, and arenas were built on many reserves. Native rodeos are still held, while many Native competitors ride in professional rodeos as well. Today, Plains and Plateau peoples proudly continue a long tradition of cowboying. Legends of Our Times is a celebration of their rich contribution to ranching and rodeo life.

Our Public Lands, Rural Voices Nora Shalaway Carpenter, 2020-10-13 Think you know what rural America is like? Discover a plurality of perspectives in this enlightening anthology of stories that turns preconceptions on their head. Gracie sees a chance of fitting in at her South Carolina private school until a white trash-themed Halloween party has her steering clear of the rich kids. Samuel's Tejano family has both stood up to oppression and been a source of it, but now he's ready to own his true sexual identity. A Puerto Rican teen in Utah discovers that being a rodeo queen means embracing her heritage, not shedding it. For most of America's history, rural people and culture have been casually mocked, stereotyped, and in general, deeply misunderstood. Now, an array of short stories, poetry, graphic short stories, and personal essays, along with anecdotes from the authors' real lives, dives deep into the complexity and diversity of rural America and the people who call it home. Fifteen extraordinary authors, diverse in ethnic background, sexual orientation, geographic location, and socioeconomic status, explore the challenges, beauty, and nuances of growing up in rural America. From a mountain town in New Mexico to the gorges of New York to the arctic tundra of Alaska, you'll find yourself visiting parts of this country you might not know existed and meet characters whose lives might be surprisingly similar to your own. Featuring contributors: David Bowles, Joseph Bruchac, Veeda Bybee, Nora Shalaway, Carpenter, Shae Carys, S. A. Cosby, Rob Costello, Randy DuBurke, David Macinnis, Gill Nasugra, Rainey Hopson, Estelle Laure.
