New Federal Income Tax regulations require donors claiming deduction for contributions consisting of property other than cash worth more than cash worth more than $500 to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8283, "Noncash Charitable Contribution," where the donor lists charitable recipients, either their publicly traded securities, and/or $500 (or including similar property contributed to one or more charitable organizations, the donor/charitable organization must acknowledge the contribution on the Form 8283. In addition, donor/charitable organizations are required to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8282, "Donor Information Return," when they dispose of certain property the recipient have acknowledged on a Form 8283. (See IRB Publication 5811 (Issued November 1995) "Containing the Value of Donated Property" for detailed information.)
