

Valedictory speech

"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

Miller,1924 Who We Met on the Way to Stanford Richard P. Sinay,2024-08-09 In the fall of 2000 my son began attending Stanford on a golf scholarship It was a long and challenging road to achieve this goal When he learned about the college he went around the house with his Stanford sweatshirt and seldom took it off After winning the San Diego Junior World Golf Championship he was an accomplished junior golfer Stanford s coach at the time was Wally Goodwin an excellent cheerful fellow who was also Tiger Woods s coach Wally had seen the best golfers at Stanford so he was a coach who knew what he wanted in a player He started following my son after this victory at the San Diego tournament and around the time he received a letter asking Wally if he would come to watch him play golf Wally did he was there often to oversee this young man s development and golf As a father I took my son to many golf tournaments He was a joy to watch and did well as a junior golfer through high school He even had the accomplishment of replacing Tiger Woods scoring record Tiger s best score for the high school championships in Southern California was 66 but my son managed to shoot a 65 in his junior year in high school against players from five hundred and eighty six schools and other high schools Many other delightful moments were watching my son play and good times I will not forget One day while reading through some of my writings I came across some notes my son had sent me about appealing the dismissal of his scholarship Reading the notes almost seventeen years later was a revelation to me I was unaware of the time frames at the time of the essence of this story so I investigated the information further What I discovered became the basis of this book There were weeks of struggling with the time frames and difficulties understanding what happened in the struggle at Stanford The book is my way of putting together what I discovered What I found to be mostly true but not having been there myself I may not even know half the story Nevertheless this is my memoir of what it was like raising a kid with extraordinary talent playing golf and what happened when he arrived at Standford to fulfill his obligation for the scholarship he received A Teacher's Cry Lewis W. Gender in the Classroom David Sadker, Ellen S. Silber, 2016-08-23 What s missing from your teacher education program According to research studies one glaring omission is gender Tomorrow s teachers receive little instruction or training on the tremendous impact of gender in the classroom Just how does gender influence teaching the curriculum and the lives of teachers and students in the classroom This unique book has been designed to answer these questions Gender in the Classroom is intended to be used across the teacher education curriculum from subject specific methods courses to foundations from educational psychology to student teaching It can be adopted for an entire program or several instructors can adopt it jointly or a single instructor can adopt it as one of several or a supplementary text for a course A comprehensive Instructor s Manual provides information and materials for teacher educators who adopt the text Each chapter offers practical information and skills about gender and sex differences curriculum and specific teaching methods Written in a lively style the text features a number of interactive activities to engage and instruct the reader The chapters follow a common format designed to invite student interest and action Each is built around Essential Equity Questions that focus on pertinent gender related questions and issues in a specific subject area the role of women in education intersections of the teaching profession feminism and teachers as activists for social change gender differences in cognitive ability attitudes and behavior how to teach and implement Title IX how to observe classrooms to see gender bias social studies education English language arts methods science education and mathematics and technology education Interactions in each chapter engage students in activities to promote understanding Each Interaction is linked to one or more specific INTASC standards In the last chapter the emphasis is on applying many of the skills learned previously it gives student teachers and their supervisors several tools they can use for analyzing classroom teaching and detecting gender bias This chapter also includes a culminating activity for identifying and correcting curricular bias In fact many of the techniques in this text can be applied to uncover and correct not only gender bias but racial ethnic and cultural bias as well The Instructor s Manual 978 0 8058 5475 6 is now available electronically please contact our customer service department to request a copy Official Proceedings
