

which the military draft is currently developed lead to a series of positive and negative effects – as analytically explained below.

2. Military Draft – aspects, pros and cons

The Military Draft has been developed in order to serve specific needs: the number of the citizens participating in the military corps had to be estimated and evaluated – taking into consideration the military needs of each country – at least this is the initial role of the Military Draft as part of a country's political framework. At the next level, the Military Draft can serve a series of additional needs, for instance, the need of a country to improve its position in the international community – by showing a well structured and highly populated army. At the same time, the ability of a country to protect its geo political role is usually proved by its military population – also, its military advances – referring to the military technology available to the particular country. It is made clear that the Military Draft can have different roles – in accordance with the political and social framework of each country. In this context, the development of Military Draft is expected to lead to a series of positive and negative effects – being more or less clear in accordance with the existing political environment.

In the literature, the participation of citizens in the military corps is believed to reflect a specific trade the limitation of the personal rights in favor of the rights and the safety of the public. At this point the following problem appears: is such limitation acceptable? It could be argued that the freedom of the nation cannot be guaranteed without the participation of the citizens in the military. However, even
