Reluctant Fundamentalist Chapter Summaries:

Quicklet on Mohsin Hamid's The Reluctant Fundamentalist Elizabeth Shestakova, 2012-07-30 ABOUT THE BOOK I wonder now sir whether I believed at all in the firmness of the foundations of the new life I was attempting to construct for myself in New York Americans remember where they were on September 11 2001 a day that has become a permanent fixture in the calendar As retaliation for the attack the US launched a war in Afghanistan called Operation Enduring Freedom with the goal of dismantling the Taliban Currently the Afghanistan war has become America's longest war even longer than the war in Vietnam Given the duration of the war and how it began it is surprising to note that many people in Afghanistan don't know why the war started Considering that 42% of the population is under 14 and that 72% is illiterate it's not surprising that this event doesn't register In addition the scarcity of electricity also explains ignorance of the event American foreigners call September 11th As a result most people from Afghanistan don't understand why the US invaded their country causing more than 12 000 civilian deaths since the war started The disparity of the two worldviews continues to contribute to the tensions between the two countries Similarly the average American knows very little about the Afghani people and the politics of this area In an Angus Reid Public Opinion Poll half of American respondents said they don't understand what the war in Afghanistan is about One of the reasons for this might be because the US media doesn't focus on this war as much as on the Kardashians This tension and lack of understanding creates a perfect opening for The Reluctant Fundamentalist by Mohsin Hamid to educate Americans about the other side The Reluctant Fundamentalist is about a Pakistani living in New York who reevaluates his successful American life after the September 11 attacks The book's main advantage is that it is so topical Given the heavy involvement of the US in the Middle East as well as neighbouring Afghanistan and Pakistan it seems no region is more important to American welfare EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Students like me were given visas and scholarships complete financial aid mind you and invited into the ranks of the meritocracy In return we were expected to contribute our talents to your society the society we were joining And for the most part we were happy to do so I certainly was at least at first pg 4 It is worth describing the author's background which can be found on his website because it bears many similarities to the main character of the novel Changez From the ages of 9 to 18 the author lived in Lahore Pakistan Hamid studied at Princeton University and graduated summa cum laude He then went Harvard Law School Upon graduation he got a job at the elite McKinsey and Company and used his free time to complete his first novel This novel Moth Smoke took seven years to complete but became a bestseller in India and Pakistan The Reluctant Fundamentalist is his second book and also took seven years to complete On BBC Radio Hamid explains that the reason it took him so long to write both books is that he is figuring them out as he writes them Quicklet on Mohsin Hamid's The Reluctant Fundamentalist The Reluctant Fundamentalist is the story of Changez who comes from Pakistan to study at Princeton University At Princeton he excels and is rewarded with a job at the prestigious valuation firm Ultrawood Samson He uses his sign on bonus to pay for a trip to

Greece with his classmates In Greece he falls in love with an all American girl named Erica He is attracted to her beauty and she is attracted to his old fashioned manners As he gets to know her Changez finds out that her ex boyfriend Chris died of lung cancer a year earlier

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan,2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11

Post-Orientalism and Contemporary American Novels

Mousa Abu Haserah, 2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature The study focuses on four novels Mornings in Jenin Falling Man The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Riyadh Al Janna The Wind of Paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said's Orientalism into account also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it South Asian Atlantic Literature, 1970-2010 Ruth Maxey, 2014-02-28 Tracing a literary lineage for works from different genres it identifies key trends in recent South Asian American and British Asian literature by considering the favoured formal and aesthetic modes of major writers and by relating their work to differen Resisting Dialogue Juan Meneses, 2019-12-24 A bold new critique of dialogue as a method of eliminating dissent Is dialogue always the productive political and communicative tool it is widely conceived to be Resisting Dialogue reassesses our assumptions about dialogue and in so doing about what a politically healthy society should look like Juan Meneses argues that far from an unalloyed good dialogue often serves as a subtle tool of domination perpetuating the underlying inequalities it is intended to address Meneses investigates how illusory dialogue a particular dialogic encounter designed to secure consensus is employed as an instrument that forestalls instead of fostering articulations of dissent that lead to political change He does so through close readings of novels from the English speaking world written in the past hundred years from E M Forster's A Passage to India and Jeanette Winterson's The Passion to Indra Sinha's Animal's People and more Resisting Dialogue demonstrates how these novels are rhetorical exercises with real political clout capable of restoring the radical potential of dialogue in today's globalized world Expanding the boundaries of postpolitical theory Meneses reveals how these works offer ways to practice disagreement against this regulatory use of dialogue and expose the pitfalls of certain other dialogic interventions in relation to some of the most prominent questions of modern history cosmopolitanism at the end of empire the dangers of rewriting the historical record the affective dimension of neoliberalism the racial and nationalist underpinnings of the war on terror and the visibility of environmental violence in the Anthropocene Ultimately Resisting Dialogue is a complex provocative critique that melding political and literary theory reveals how fiction can help confront the deployment of dialogue to preempt the emergence of dissent and thus revitalize the practice of emancipatory politics Literature and the Human Andy Mousley, 2013-05-29 Why does literature matter What is its human value Historical approaches to literature have for several decades prevailed over the idea that literary works can deepen our understanding of fundamental questions of existence This book re affirms literature s existential value by developing a new critical vocabulary for thinking about literature s human meaningfulness It puts this vocabulary into practice through close reading of a wide range of texts from The Second Wakefield Shepherds Play to Mohsin Hamid s The Reluctant Fundamentalist Individual chapters discuss Literature s engagement of the emotions Literature s humanisation of history Literature s treatment of universals and particulars The depth of reflection provoked by literary works Literature as a special kind of seeing and framing The question at the heart of the volume of why literature matters makes this book relevant to all students and professors of literature

Twenty-First Century Fictions of Terrorism Arin Keeble,2024-05-31 Examining novels by celebrated authors some neglected and some brand new texts Arin Keeble offers a detailed analysis of the ways novels from around the world have represented terrorism in the early twenty first century Over five chapters he uncovers a movement away from event based narratives toward depictions of terrorism as a violent symptom or feature of twenty first century world systems and neoliberalism Beginning with the early literary response to 9 11 and the 9 11 novel genre the book moves through more recent depictions of the endless war on terror state terror white nationalist terror and historical narratives of terror that resonate in the current political climate In doing so it examines the changing ways literature has sought to make sense of both the reasons why terrorism occurs and the effects it has on victims survivors and international and intercultural relations

'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao,2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9 11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9 11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9 11 South Asian diasporic fictions

Constructing the Enemy Rajini Srikanth,2011-12-09 In her engaging book Constructing the Enemy Rajini Srikanth probes the concept of empathy attempting to understand its different types and how it is or isn t generated and maintained in specific circumstances Using literary texts to illuminate issues of power and discussions of law Srikanth focuses on two case studies the internment of Japanese citizens and Japanese Americans in World War II after the bombing of Pearl Harbor and the detainment of Muslim Americans and individuals from various nations in the U S prison at Guantanamo Bay Through primary documents and interviews that reveal why and how lawyers become involved in defending those who have been designated enemies Srikanth explores the complex conditions under which engaged citizenship emerges Constructing the Enemy probes the seductive promise of legal discourse and analyzes the emergence and manifestation of empathy in lawyers and other concerned citizens and the wider consequences of this empathy on the institutions that regulate our lives

Narratives of Disparity Rida Inam ,2018 Islam and the West are often identified as two distinct civilizations with conflicting characteristics Assuming that a clash between Islam and the West is not inevitable this study demonstrates that the divide is fabricated on both sides by Narratives of Disparity NoDs which are often built on historical narratives The interplay of history and fiction in NoDs is exhibited on four novels published in Britain after 9 11 covering the most frequently used tropes the postcolonial experience counterterrorism eurocentrism traditionalism honour killings and sexual autonomy A Poetics of Forgiveness J.

Scott,2010-03-29 Despite recent interest in forgiveness and reconciliation relatively little research has been conducted on forgiveness in literary studies A Poetics of Forgiveness explores the profound links between creativity and forgiveness and argues that creative production and interpretation can play a vital role in practices of forgiveness Developing a model of poetic forgiveness through the work of Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Kelly Oliver A Poetics of Forgiveness asks how forgiveness is expressed in literature and other art forms and what creative works can bring to secular debates on forgiveness and conflict resolution Jill Scott explores these questions in a wide variety of historical and cultural contexts from Homer's Iliad to 9 11 novels from postwar Germany to post Apartheid South Africa in canonical texts and in diverse media including film photography and testimony Ruptured Commons Anna Guttman,Veronica J. Austen,2024-10-10 At a time when we have all lived through profound and unexpected disruptions to our shared spaces routines economies societies and work lives this book considers the nature and implications of rupture the commons and their conjoining Addressing rupture and disruption through the lens of literary and cultural studies this volume traverses genres film fiction theatre poetry and the graphic novel and continents and addresses histories and identities as ecologies The focus is resolutely contemporary with nearly all of the texts being analyzed produced within the last decade Beginning with the history of and debates about Garrett Hardin's famous tragedy of the commons Ruptured Commons engages with texts and cultures of disaster wherein artistic expression becomes a form of protest and a path to change This collection both critically examines our arrival at and understanding of this moment and explores diverse and hopeful visions for the future embedded within contemporary culture

Frames of Memory after 9/11 L. Bond,2015-02-17 This book examines the commemoration of 9 11 in American memorial culture It argues that the emergence of counter memories of September 11 has been compromised by the dominance of certain narrative paradigms or frames of memory that have mediated the representation of the attacks across cultural critical political and juridical discourses This Muslim American Life Moustafa Bayoumi,2015-09-18 Winner of the 2016 Evelyn Shakir Non Fiction Arab American Book Award A collection of insightful and heartbreaking essays on Muslim American life after 9 11 Over the last few years Moustafa Bayoumi has been an extra in Sex and the City 2 playing a generic Arab a terrorist suspect or at least his namesake Mustafa Bayoumi was in a detective novel the subject of a trumped up controversy because a book he had written was seen by right wing media as pushing an anti American pro Islam agenda and was asked by a U S citizenship officer to drop his middle name of Mohamed Others have endured far worse fates Sweeping arrests following the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 led to the incarceration and deportation of thousands of Arabs and Muslims based almost solely on their national origin and immigration status The NYPD with help from the CIA has aggressively spied on Muslims in the New York area as they go about their ordinary lives from noting where they get their hair cut to eavesdropping on conversations in cafés In This Muslim American Life Moustafa Bayoumi reveals what the War on Terror looks like from the vantage point of Muslim Americans highlighting the profound effect this surveillance has had on how they live their lives To be a Muslim American today often means to exist in an absurd space between exotic and dangerous victim and villain simply because of the assumptions people carry about you In gripping essays Bayoumi exposes how contemporary politics movies novels media experts and more have together produced a culture of fear and suspicion that not only willfully forgets the Muslim American past but also threatens all of our civil liberties in the present British and American Representations of 9/11 Oana-Celia Gheorghiu, 2018-04-19 This book argues that twenty first century neorealist fiction is inspired by political and journalistic discourses and along with them constitutes one of the many representations of the attacks on September 11 and their outcomes Adopting a neorealist stance this book is placed at the intersection of realism and fiction with often reference to what is perceived as objective writing media and political texts not at all so divorced from the practice of literary writings on the event that shook the world on September 11 2001 Trauma and Fictions of the "War on Terror" Sarah O'Brien, 2021-05-18 This book explores the ways in which transnational fiction in the post 9 11 era can intervene in discourse surrounding the war on terror to advocate for marginalised perspectives Trauma and Fictions of the War on Terror conceptualises global political discourse about the war on terror as incongruous with transnational memory frames instituted in Western nations centralising 9 11 as uniquely traumatic excluding the historical and present day experiences of Afghans under Western specifically American hegemonic violence Recent developments in trauma studies explain how dominant Western trauma theory participates in this exclusion failing to account for the ongoing suffering common to non Western colonial and postcolonial contexts O'Brien explores how Khaled Hosseini The Kite Runner Nadeem Aslam The Wasted Vigil The Blind Man's Garden and Kamila Shamsie Burnt Shadows represent marginalised perspectives in the context of the war on terror Creative Writing Exercises For Dummies Maggie Hamand, 2014-09-11 Turn your inspiration into a story with clear expert guidance Creative Writing Exercises For Dummies is a step by step creative writing course designed to hone your craft regardless of ability Written by the founder of the Complete Creative Writing Course at London's Groucho Club this activity based guide walks you through the process of developing and writing in a wide range of genres including novels short stories and creative nonfiction The book includes writing prompts exercises mind maps flow charts and diagrams designed to get your ideas flowing You'll get expert guidance into character development plot structure and prose plus extensive insight into self editing and polishing your work Whether you're a new writer with a seed of an idea you would like to develop or are looking to strengthen your creative writing skills this book has you covered Covering every aspect of narrative from setting initial goals to formatting a manuscript Creative Writing Exercises For Dummies provides the tools and instruction you need to make your story the best it can be Learn to spark your imagination and sketch out ideas Create compelling characters and paint a picture with description Develop your
