

Dear Senior Parents,

Happy New Year and what a special one it is for the parents and students in the graduating Class of 2013! We are entering the 6th week of the 2nd and last semester of your student's high school experience, which puts us closer to the time when they prepare to don caps and gowns and walk across the stage to receive their diplomas on Saturday, June 1, 2013.

For the second straight year, Commencement will be held at the beautiful Great Hall of the Wharton Center on the Michigan State University campus on Saturday evening, June 1, 2013, at 6 pm. While the Great Hall is one of Michigan State University's most appealing venues, and offers the much needed comforts of air conditioning, it has limited seating. Therefore, it will be necessary to issue tickets for admission to Commencement. Everyone attending the ceremony will be required to have a ticket.

In November we mailed out a letter asking that you turn in your request for graduation tickets and that we may not be able to guarantee the number of tickets requested. I am happy to report that we have received ticket requests from 98% of our parents in the Class of 2013. Tickets will be available for parents to pick up during Spring Parent Conferences, which are Tuesday, March 26 and Wednesday, March 27, from 5pm – 8 pm in the cafeteria. Tickets must be picked up and signed out by parents and will not under any circumstances be given to students.

If you might have questions and/or concerns related to graduation tickets, please direct them to me at tthomas@waverlyk12.net or (517) 323-3831. Congratulations in advance to the parents of the outstanding Class of 2013!

Sincerely,

Tracy Thomas
Deputy Principal

Resources in Education ,2000 Cross-Cultural Approaches to Literacy Brian V. Street,1993-03-25 Cross Cultural Approaches to Literacy investigates the meanings and uses of literacy in different cultures and societies In contrast to previous studies where the focus of research has been on aspects of cognition education and on the economic consequences of literacy these largely ethnographic essays bring together anthropological and linguistic work written over the last ten years Accounts of literacy practices in a variety of locations including Great Britain the United States Africa the South Pacific and Madagascar illustrate how these practices vary from one context to another and challenge the traditional view that literacy is a single uniform skill essential to functioning in a modern society The Remedial Writing Teacher's Handbook Vicki L. Hackett,Paul C. Dalmas,1996 A comprehensive guide to help students develop basic writing competencies and to encourage them to continue writing for their own enjoyment and satisfaction English for Business Studies Teacher's Book Ian Mackenzie,I. E. Mackenzie,2010-04 A reading speaking listening and writing course for learners with at least an upper intermediate level of English who need to understand and express the key concepts of business and economics

Oltman,2012-11-02 Your guide to action when student writing crosses the line At what point should violent student expressions be considered a legitimate threat This legal handbook helps you apply caution and logic in protecting your students freedom of speech while also protecting the safety of everyone in the building Gretchen Oltman an experienced educator and licensed attorney shows you how to react appropriately to warning signs from students Youll discover how to Prevent violence by creating a positive and safe school environment Guide teachers in assessing written threats of violence Evaluate writing outside the classroom including texting and Facebook postings Violence in Student Writing delves into the real life experiences of administrators teachers and students exploring current and relevant issues in student writing violence and offering solutions that every school administrator needs to know Handbook for Teachers of Business Management University of the State of New York. Bureau of Business and Distributive Education,1962 Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye,1990-12-13 Most writing is done under pressure An executive has to produce a three page position paper by tomorrow at nine A department head suddenly has to write a one page action memo by noon A graduate student has a twenty page research paper due in a week Yet while most students and professionals write under pressure with limited time limited space and a supervisor or instructor to please few approach the task systematically In Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye a renowned expert on the subject presents a system he calls the Quick Writing Process QWP that focuses on real world writing tasks and demonstrates how to produce the clearest most honest most powerful work possible under the constraints of time and space A writing instructor with twenty five years experience teaching students and professionals in business and government Kaye tells writers how to budget their time and how to use this time efficiently Exploring particular writing situations in which QWP can be applied to make the most of what the writer knows Kaye discusses the process of taking exams focusing on how instructors select questions and evaluate essays He also considers writing in business and government featuring an insightful analysis of a memo written by Colonel Oliver North This memo highlights one of the most important issues writers in business and government face whether to write the truth as they see it or simply what their bosses want to hear Presenting a wealth of such examples Kaye reveals how to break through stifling organizational codes in order to write memos and position papers that count While most guides to writing ignore the constraints of time and space Writing Under Pressure tackles these problems head on making it an essential reference for students business professionals government officials or anyone else faced with a difficult writing assignment that has to be done now Write to Be Read Barbara J. Smith, Hope Blecher, 2023-11-03 Write to Be Read is meant to inspire educators to be designers of engaging curriculum specifically targeting ways to improve the teaching of writing in schools today Students tend to write in response to literature whereas the focus of this resource is to help students write material fiction and non fiction that they want to read Students often engage in writing that is more about pleasing the teacher or ticking a homework or assignment box This book challenges many assumptions with reference to traditional models for teaching writing A rich assortment of engaging examples are presented in this book to prompt educators to adapt and construct their own meaningful writing units of study Business Education Forum, 1991 Cases on Error Analysis in Foreign Language Technical Writing Lebedeva, Nadezhda Anatolievna, 2023-07-21 There is a clear tendency to consider the errors committed by learners in the process of learning a foreign language not as a negative aspect but as a natural process in the development of their language skills In the past teachers and researchers pondered these errors as something unfavorable something to prevent from occurring at all costs In order to regulate this appearance of errors many researchers in the field of foreign language technical teaching have started to study and track the errors made by these students Knowing the most common types of errors is an important and necessary step to inform teachers about where to direct their efforts regarding the most problematic areas students face while producing their technical writing assignments in a foreign language Cases on Error Analysis in Foreign Language Technical Writing provides relevant theoretical foundations and the latest empirical research findings in the area of error analysis in foreign language technical writing This book also summarizes the experience of teaching a foreign language for professional purposes in various fields of higher education Covering topics such as error analysis lexical skills and writing outputs this casebook is an essential resource for preservice teachers educators administrators librarians researchers and academicians Congressional Record United States.
