Dear Aunt Rita,

Greeting:
A way to begin the letter

I had a wonderful time visiting you this summer. Swimming in your pool was a lot of fun. I liked your slide and playing Marco Polo with my cousins.

Thank you for taking me to the museum too. That was so thoughtful. I learned so much about the Revolutionary War. I wonder if I would be a Patriot or Loyalist?

Body:
Personal message

I will never forget my visit with you. I hope to come back next summer! Will you be able to come see us soon? I miss you!

Closing:
A way to end the letter.

Love,

Department of Iowa State University U S A I was fortunate to attend as a visitor from the U S the first European Association for the Teaching of Academic Writing EATAW conference in 2001 at Groningen I was struck by the similarities in the challenges higher education faces on both sides of the Atlantic in terms of developing students academic writing and students learning through writing It is indeed an international problem But I was equally struck by the profound differences in responding to these challenges among tions institutions disciplines and even within disciplines The essays in this traordinary volume address a growing demand for help with academic writing on the part of students and academic staff alike And they do so in ways that bring fresh approaches not only to Europeans who have only recently begun to study academic writing but also to researchers and academic staff in the U S where we have a c tury old tradition of attention to the problem but are much in need of these fresh approaches Academic writing has become a problem in higher education all around the world because higher education sits smack between two contradictory pressures On one end far more students and far more diverse students come streaming into higher education bringing in a far greater diversity of linguistic resources often interpreted as standards are falling as Frank Haacke Tente point out Collaborating for English Learners Andrea Honigsfeld, Maria G. Dove, 2019-01-18 Looking for a silver bullet to accelerate EL achievement There is none But this we promise when EL specialists and general ed teachers pool their expertise your ELs language development and content mastery will improve exponentially Just ask the tens of thousands of Collaboration and Co Teaching users and now a new generation of educators thanks to this all new second edition Collaborating for English Learners Why this new edition Because more than a decade of implementation has generated for Andrea Honigsfeld and Maria Dove new insight into what exemplary teacher collaboration looks like which essential frameworks must be established and how integrated approaches to ELD services benefit all stakeholders Essentially a roadmap to the many different ways we can all work together this second edition of Collaborating for English Learners features All new examples case studies illustrative video and policy updates In depth coverage of the full range of strategies and configurations for determining the best model to adopt Templates planning guides and other practical tools to put collaboration into practice Guidelines self assessments and questionnaires for evaluating the strategies effectiveness By this time the big benefits of teacher collaboration are well documented Where teachers and schools struggle still is determining the best way to do so especially when working with our ELs That s where Andrea Honigsfeld Maria Dove and their second edition of Collaborating for English Learners will prove absolutely indispensable After all there are no two better authorities
