

NON-DENOMINATIONAL INVOCATIONS FOR KIWANIS MEETINGS

- ❖ Let us take a moment to remember all the religions represented in the Kiwanis family. Let us also recall that when we were invited to join our Kiwanis clubs we were not asked "are you a Protestant, a Hindu, a Muslim, a Jew, a Catholic or a Buddhist?" You are not asked because all religions are welcome in the Kiwanis family.

Please join me in a moment of reflection and thanks with these words:

With our friends beside us and no person beneath us, with the bonds of Kiwanis between us, and our worries behind us, with our goals before us, and no task beyond us, with a thirst for knowledge, and a dream of a disease-free world, we are thankful for our Kiwanis friends and the meal we are about to share.

- ❖ Will you please bow your head with me. Let us pray silently together, each one of us according to our individual beliefs. Let us offer thanks for our food, blessings for one another. Let us be a source of hope for those in need and contentment for those who are lonely. Let us give gratitude for our opportunity to serve Kiwanis. Let the feelings of love, kindness, and a well-directed yet gentle spirit always be reflected in our actions.
- ❖ Let my eyes be opened. Let me awake and see the beauty that surrounds me all around. Let me hear the singing birds make their wonderful sound. Let me thank God for my health that has been good to me so far. Let all my dreams come true when wishing upon a star. Let me be thankful for friendship that was lovingly given me. Let me never forget the caring that was made for me to see.
- ❖ Will you please bow your head with me. Let us pray silently together, each of us according to our individual beliefs. Let us offer thanks for our food, blessings for one another and for absent friends. Let us be a source of hope for those in need, and contentment for those who are lonely. Let us give gratitude for our opportunity to serve Kiwanis. Let the feelings of love, kindness, and a well-directed, yet gentle spirit always be reflected in our actions.
