

Back-to-School LETTERS

from the Teacher

FOR STUDENTS

Dear Darin,

Welcome back to school!

I want to share my excitement and provide you with some information about this fantastic experience we'll face together this year!

I am thrilled to have you as my student and am excited to spend many productive days together. There are a few things I'd like you to know:

- It is normal to feel a mix of emotions as a new year begins. Many kids return to school feeling excited, nervous, worried, and anxious. Remember that we are in this together and you are not alone.
- I will be your teacher and I will help you with any problems you have. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.
- We will face challenges, successes, frustrations, and joys together this year. Through it all, I will help you reach for your dreams, encourage you to achieve more than you ever thought you could, and inspire you to be the best possible version of yourself.
- I am passionate about teaching and can't wait to watch you discover, develop, and nurture your own interests and passions.

Thank you in advance for giving me your best and for believing in me as your teacher.

With gratitude and excitement,

FOR PARENTS

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Anderson,

Welcome to a new school year!

Thank you for entrusting me with the awesome privilege of being your sons' teacher. I respect and appreciate the opportunity to work with you and your sons. I know how important it is for your sons to have a great first year of school and I am committed to making this year a successful one for all of us.

Please know that I will be your partner in your sons' education. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.

- I will be your partner in your sons' education. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.
- I will be your partner in your sons' education. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.
- I will be your partner in your sons' education. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.

In addition to achieving academic excellence, one of my goals is to help your sons develop the skills and attitudes they need to be successful in life. I will be your partner in your sons' education. I will be your guide and I will help you with any problems you have.

I look forward to collaborating with you as we work to make this the best school year ever!

With kindness and respect,
Mrs. Britton

Adult Supervision Required Markella B. Rutherford, 2011-08-03 Adult Supervision Required considers the contradictory ways in which contemporary American culture has imagined individual autonomy for parents and children In many ways today s parents and children have more freedom than ever before There is widespread respect for children s autonomy as distinct individuals and a broad range of parenting styles are flourishing Yet it may also be fair to say that there is an unprecedented fear of children s and parents freedom Dread about Amber Alerts and stranger danger have put an end to the unsupervised outdoor play enjoyed by earlier generations of suburban kids Similarly fear of bad parenting has not only given rise to a cottage industry of advice books for anxious parents but has also granted state agencies greater power to police the family Using popular parenting advice literature as a springboard for a broader sociological analysis of the American family Markella B Rutherford explores how our increasingly psychological conception of the family might be jeopardizing our appreciation for parents and children's public lives and civil liberties
