Or Sang Soleil:

Soleiluna Emily Frances, 2024-04-30 Our story starts when ancient hearts reincarnate to tell the tale and as they unveil the mystery that links together all of history the secret knowledge that once was forbidden becomes unable to stay hidden but when the deception of the past begins to bubble the darkness conjures a conniving trouble however karma spins the wheel in the name of the light to set the world right and when the most powerful souls of the divine are alive once again to shine like the prophecies told a wonderful adventure is set to unfold as Luna meets Soleil when she crosses under the archway through the magical portal their past lives created and so their reunion was predestined and fated because life is like a poem that never ends and when they team up with their old friends they open so much more than just the ancient teleportation door as the farther they travel the more begins to unravel and is unfurled in this mythical fairytale world because with the powers of their mind they are able to find the treasures their past lives left behind and the truths that lie in the legends lost to time as they sing the everlasting rhyme and take the stage to vanquish the evil and kick off the golden age

The Pros of Cons Alison Cherry, Lindsay Ribar, Michelle Schusterman, 2018-03-27 A drummer a fanfic writer and an amateur taxidermist walk into a convention center and the weekend that unfolds will change all of their lives Drummer Phoebe Byrd prides herself on being one of the guys and she's ready to prove it by kicking all their butts in the snare solo competition at the Indoor Percussion Association Convention Writer Vanessa Montoya O Callaghan has been looking forward to the WTFcon for months Not just because of the panels and fanfiction readings but because WTFcon is where she'll finally meet Soleil her internet girlfriend for the first time Taxidermy assistant Callie Buchannan might be good at scooping brains out of deer skulls but that doesn't mean it's her passion Since her parents divorce her taxidermist father only cares about his work and assisting him at the World Taxidermy and Fish Carving Championships is the only way Callie knows to connect with him When a crazy mix up in the hotel lobby brings the three girls together they form an unlikely friendship against a chaotic background of cosplay competition and carcasses

Word and Music Studies: Defining the Field, 2024-09-02 The nineteen interdisciplinary essays assembled in WORD AND MUSIC STUDIES I were first presented in 1997 at the founding conference of the International Association for Word and Music Studies WMA in Graz Austria Diverse in subject matter theoretical orientation critical approach and interpretive strategy they share a keen scholarly interest in contemporary word music reflection Registering the impact of cultural studies on word music relations as manifested in the new musicology and other historicist approaches the volume aims to assess the entire field of word and music studies to define its subject objectives and methodology and to describe the field's state of the art. Within the broader context of generic structural performative and ideological considerations concerning the manifold interrelations between literature and music, contributors explore wide-ranging topics such as the vexing question of terminology (e.g. word and music, melopoetics, interart, intermedial, transmedial), inquiry into the meaning, narrative potential, and verbalization of music analysis of texted music, the Lied and opera, and instrumental music, and discussion of individual issues (e.g. ekphrasis, musicalization of fiction, word music, and verbal music, and interart loanwords (e.g. narrativity, counterpoint, and leitmotif)).

Three Chords, One Song Beatrice M. Hogg, 2012-08-07 After the death of their rock star father from a drug overdose, three very different sisters are forced together to decide what to do with their inheritance. But who was Mik DeSalle? Even though they share blood, they did not have the same father. Evelyn Shelton's father was Richard Shelton, a young man from Pittsburgh's working class who had a dream. Lucille Williams' father was Mik DeSalle, the famous guitarist with Sheffield Steel, who left Richard Shelton behind as soon as he left his first family and boarded a plane to Los Angeles. Soleil DeSalle's father was a musician past his prime, slipping into drugs and apathy with his new Hollywood wife. Once the sisters decide to work together, they find that others want to share the wealth for their own selfish reasons. Faith, Soleil's drug addict mother, joins with Brad, Evelyn's ex-husband, to get part of the fortune. But Faith doesn't just want money; she wants revenge, especially against Mariah Williams, Lucille's mother, and Mik, her one true love. But for the sisters to find happiness and peace and to triumph over the obstacles placed in their path, they need to reveal everything to each other. And that includes what really happened to Evelyn's brother Ricky and what really happened to Mik.

A Theory of Music Analysis Dora A. Hanninen, 2012 This book introduces a theory of music analysis that one can use to explore aspects of segmentation and associative organization in a wide range of repertoire, including Western classical music from the Baroque to the present, with potential applications to jazz and popular music, and some non-Western musics. Rather than a methodology, the theory provides analysts with precise language and a broad, flexible conceptual framework through which they can formulate and investigate questions of interest and develop their own interpretations of individual pieces and passages. The theory begins with a basic distinction among three domains of musical experience and discourse about it: the sonic, psychoacoustic, the contextual, or associative, sparked by varying degrees of repetition and the structural, guided by a specific theory of musical structure or syntax invoked by the analyst. A comprehensive presentation of the theory, with copious musical illustrations, is balanced with close analyses of works by Beethoven, Debussy, Nancarrow, Riley, Feldman, and Morris. Dora A. Hanninen is professor of music theory at the University of Maryland. She received the 2010 Outstanding Publication Award from the Society for Music Theory.

Monstrous Opera Charles Dill, 2014-07-14 One of the foremost composers of the French Baroque operatic tradition, Rameau is often cited for his struggle to steer lyric tragedy away from its strict Lullian form, inspired by spoken tragedy and toward a more expressive musical style. In this fresh exploration of Rameau's compositional aesthetic, Charles Dill depicts a much more complicated figure one obsessed with tradition music theory his own creative instincts and the public's expectations of his music Dill examines the ways Rameau mediated among these often competing values and how he interacted with his critics and with the public The result is a sophisticated rethinking of Rameau as a musical innovator In his compositions Rameau tried to highlight music's potential for dramatic meanings But his listeners who understood lyric tragedy to be a poetic rather than musical genre were generally frustrated by these attempts In fact some described Rameau's music as monstrous using an image of deformity to represent the failure of reason and communication Dill shows how Rameau answered his critics with rational theoretical arguments about the role of music in lyric tragedy At the same time however the composer sought to placate his audiences by substantially revising his musical texts in later performances sometimes abandoning his most creative ideas Monstrous Opera illuminates the complexity of Rameau's vision revealing not only the tensions within the music but also the conflicting desires that drove the man himself caricatured by his contemporaries as a monster Originally published in 1998 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Geschichte, System, literarische Übersetzung Harald Kittel, 1992 Driving Home Steffany Moonaz, 2024-03-13 Driving Home is a memoir focused on a single year of the author's life in which she and her 9 year old daughter moved in with her dying mother she suffered a traumatic brain injury resulting from being hit by a semi truck and she dealt with the reality of living hours away from her husband and their 5 year old son After the main events of the story are told the implications of the experience are addressed from a variety of different perspectives exploring the challenges and opportunities it presented The story is seen through the lens of her identities as a daughter a mother a wife a researcher a yogi and a part of the Jewish tradition With both honesty and optimism she presents her personal journey through universal themes of responsibility loss trauma striving connection and compassion

Journal Philadelphia Orchestra, 1918 The Penguin Book of French Poetry, 2005-02-24 This collection illuminates the uniquely fascinating era between 1820 and 1950 in French poetry a time in which diverse aesthetic ideas conflicted and converged as poetic forms evolved at an astonishing pace It includes generous selections from all the established giants among them Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Breton as well as works from a wide variety of less well known poets such as Claudel and Cendrars whose innovations proved vital to the progress of poetry in France The significant literary schools of the time are also represented in sections focusing on such movements as Romanticism Symbolism Cubism and Surrealism Eloquent and inspirational this rich and exhilarating anthology reveals an era of exceptional vitality
