

The Same Sex Marriage Should Be Legalized.

The same sex marriage has been widely debated in many countries for a long time. It is an important issue because it concerns basic moral and human rights. Nowadays, many gay couples have come out and expressed their sexuality choices. Although many people are against the legalization of same sex marriage, the same sex marriage should be legalized because it is their civil rights which is a separate institution with religious, it encourages strong family value and leads to the increasing number of child adoption, and the same sex marriage also brings a lot of financial benefits.

Many people believe that the same sex marriage should not be legalized because it goes against the moral and the definition of marriage. According to MarketWatch magazine (2008), a lot of people believe that same sex marriages destroy family values and the sanctity of tradition. Moreover, the same sex marriage goes against many religious beliefs such as Catholicism and Islam. However, civil and religious marriages are two separate institutions. Joe Solmoneses, the president of the Human Rights Campaign Foundation, claims that marriage is not only a significant religious meaning but it is also a legal contract. Many couples would not require any religious leaders to perform their marriages. So the frames of the religious and law were separated.

While a lot of people strongly believe that children need a mother and a father. According to the National Institutes of Health (2008), girls who are raised apart from their father are reportedly at higher risk for early sexual activities. Same sex households are not appropriate for raising children. On the other hand, Dr. Peggy Drexler, author of 'Our Father, Ourselves, Daughters and the Changing American Family', claims that from her studies children raising in the same sex households felt more open-minded and empathetic than other children. According to the research, the quality of a family's relationship is more important than the particular structure of families. Moreover, research studies from the Human Rights Campaign Foundation also shows that children raised by gay parents do just as well as children raised by straight couples.

Another reason why same sex marriages should be legalized is financial benefits. Even though some people felt uncomfortable to have their tax used to support something they find wrong, they think legalizing gay marriage might cost too much tax money. However, same sex couples also pay tax as everybody, so they have the right to receive the same benefit with others. Moreover, the same sex marriage will gain a lot of financial benefits through marriage licenses, higher income taxes and decrease in cost for state benefit programs. Joe Solmonese argues that legalized gay marriage would reduce tax used on public assistance programs.

Treating same-sex couples as families under law could even save taxpayers money because marriage would require them to assume legal responsibility for their joint living expenses and reduce their dependence on public assistance programs such as Medicaid, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, Supplemental Security Income disability payments and food stamps.

(“Answer to Questions About Marriage Equality”, www.hrc.org, 2009)

Therefore, the same financial benefits that apply to man-woman marriages apply to same-sex marriages.

Same Sex Marriage Argumentative Essay:

Moral Argument, Religion, and Same-sex Marriage Gordon Albert Babst, Emily R. Gill, Jason Pierceson, 2009-01-01
The diverse expert contributors to this volume from the fields of politics and law use moral argumentation with respect to same sex marriage gay rights in general and California's Prop 8. The arguments are advanced in terms of the nation's foundational political and legal principles extending ethical argumentation to important contemporary public policy areas such as marriage the separation of church and state and the rearing of children. Several chapters also contest the perceived if not actual establishment in the law and public policy of heterosexist and religious bias that continues to work against full and meaningful inclusion of sexual minorities. This bias is ironically and improperly couched in the language of American political and religious values and it misunderstands the nation's core principles or willfully miscasts them as inapplicable to many Americans and their families. Nonetheless this bias is pervasive in the nation's political discourse working to deny an important right and the recognition of equality to many citizens. The main contribution of Moral Argument Religion and Same Sex Marriage is in its direct engagement with the political and legal arguments of the gay community's critics on their own moral and ethical terms. Along the way important concepts in public discourse such as governmental neutrality the right to marry and religious freedom are presented and cast in the light of liberal democratic theory.

Debating Same-Sex Marriage John Corvino, Maggie Gallagher, 2012-06-01
Taking a point counterpoint approach John Corvino a philosopher and a prominent gay advocate and Maggie Gallagher a nationally syndicated columnist and co founder of the National Organization for Marriage consider key questions about the institution itself. What is marriage for? Is marriage meant to be a gendered institution? Why is the state in the business of sanctioning marriage? Where do the needs of children fit in? Will legalization of same sex marriage lead to legalization of polygamy? Corvino argues that society should support same sex marriage because of its interest in supporting stable households for all its members gay and straight alike. Gallagher argues that government recognition of same sex unions as marriages will disconnect marriage from its key public mission furthering responsible procreation while stigmatizing traditional views of sex marriage and family as bigotry. Both agree that the issue deserves thoughtful rigorous engagement.

The Triumph of Love Eric Reitan, 2017-07-31 Recent years have witnessed an astonishing cultural and legal shift when it comes to homosexuality and same sex marriage Many Christians see these changes as a defeat for Christian values often painting Christian opponents as sell outs to secular culture But can there be a genuinely Christian case for same sex marriage This book makes that case While sensitive to scriptural issues it focuses on a question that cannot be answered by Scripture alone What does love for our gay and lesbian neighbors demand This question calls us to pair theological philosophical and scriptural reflection with something else attention to gay and lesbian lives We must attend to the psychological research and more importantly to the stories our gay and lesbian neighbors tell us about themselves and their experience Love does not permit us to plug our ears with Bible verses While this book argues that Christian love calls us to make same sex marriage available the deeper conclusion is that Christian values prevail when we wrestle with these questions in a spirit of love love for those with whom we disagree and love for those most affected by the decisions we reach

Public Reason and Political Community Andrew Lister, 2013-10-24 Public Reason and Political Community defends the liberal ideal of public reason against its critics but as a form of moral compromise for the sake of civic friendship rather than as a consequence of respect for persons as moral agents At the heart of the principle of public justification is an idealized unanimity requirement which can be framed in at least two different ways Is it our reasons for political decisions that have to be unanimously acceptable to qualified points of view otherwise we exclude them from deliberation or is it coercive state action that must be unanimously acceptable otherwise we default to not having a common rule or policy on the issue at hand Andrew Lister explores the anti perfectionist dilemma that results from this ambiguity He defends the reasons model on grounds of the value of political community and applies it to recent debates about marriage
