

Sample Essay on A World View of Cultural Diversity

Cultural diversity is also called multiculturalism. It is having a heart and mind that acknowledges, accepts, values and celebrates different ways via which people live and interact all over the world (AHRC, 2012). Everybody is embraced by cultural diversity regardless of their cultural differences. People are united by cultural diversity through common aspects that include acceptance, well-being, security, esteem and physical, emotional and spiritual equity. The basis of multiculturalism is the ideologies that people should value and maintain cultural practices instead of ignoring them. The basis of this belief is the foundation that there is a significant contribution made by each culture and race in the American history. As Sowell (2010) says, there were cultural features that were not just different from the others but also better. As such, the better and good part of the culture has facilitated history evolution. The cultural diversity concept is explained in this paper from the viewpoint of Sowell (Sowell, 2010).

Religious beliefs, ethnicity, economic background, sexual orientation, physical appearance, education, geographic background, cognitive style, age, culture and race are characteristics of cultural diversity. Sowell (2010) notes that, people have retained culture to serve the practical human race's requirements of passing generational experience as well as the earned knowledge throughout the years down to the inexperienced current generation and to spare the next generation from trying and failing and the costly process of learning from scratch. Sowell (2010) agrees that, culture is practically the determinant factor which differentiates the lifestyles of people while providing several examples in regards to the evolution and technology. For instance, Sowell talks about paper as well as printing that the Chinese practiced originally and this was a custom's aspect but this has
