POLICY

All Johns Hopkins Home Care Group employees will be evaluated at periodic intervals based on his/her job description and not less than annually.

Purpose

To define the policy and procedure and guidelines of Johns Hopkins Home Care Group with respect to a common and consistent program of completing performance appraisals for all employees. To provide a consistent process, in compliance with JCAHO and HCFA standards.

Content

A performance appraisal is intended to document and maintain satisfactory performance as a part of an individual employee by:

- A. Providing a means of measuring an employee's effectiveness on the job.
- B. Identifying areas where an employee is in need of training or improving.
- C. Maintaining a high level of motivation through feedback and the setting of specific goals on the basis of this feedback.

Employees are responsible for working with their supervisors on an ongoing basis to develop and maintain a clear performance plan defining various performance expectations and their relative priority.

I. DEFINITIONS

- A. A performance appraisal is any judgement or decision that affects an employee's status in an organization regarding retention, termination, promotion, transfer, salary adjustment or admission into training programs.
- B. A performance appraisal is an assessment of the quantity, quality and value of an individual's contribution to Johns Hopkins Home Care Group based on performance of essential functions and/or responsibilities.
- C. Performance appraisals are based upon the employee's performance as it relates to his/her specific written job description.
