On the surface, Edinburgh is a purely Scottish city; its India past is not easily visible. Yet from the late 17th century onwards, many of Edinburgh's young men and women were drawn to India. The city received back money and knowledge, sculpture and paintings, botanical specimens and even skulls. Colonel James Skinner, well known for establishing Skinner's Horse, brought his sons to Edinburgh for their schooling. Though Sir Walter Scott visited India only in his imagination and tried to stop his own sons going there, he crafted a dashing India tale involving Tipu Sultan. The money from India helped create Edinburgh's New Town. Edinburgh's internationally renowned schools, whose former pupils' careers ranged from tea planters to Viceroy's and people who came to Edinburgh from India, established Edinburgh's second women's medical college. There are many such hidden stories of Edinburgh's India connections. In this path-breaking book, they are brought to life using novel approaches to look at Edinburgh's past to see it as an imperial city, a city for which India held a special place. Focusing on the interactions between individual lives, social networks and financial, material, cultural and social flows, leading experts from Edinburgh's history provide fascinating detail on how Edinburgh's links to India were formed and transformed. Please note: Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. Solar
