Whitehead,2019-07-16 PULITZER PRIZE WINNER NATIONAL BESTSELLER This follow up to The Underground Railroad brilliantly dramatizes another strand of American history through the story of two boys unjustly sentenced to a hellish reform school in Jim Crow era Florida One of the most gifted novelists in America today NPR NOW A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE NOMINATED FOR AN ACADEMY AWARD FOR BEST PICTURE AND DIRECTED BY ACADEMY AWARD NOMINEE RAMELL ROSS When Elwood Curtis a black boy growing up in 1960s Tallahassee is unfairly sentenced to a juvenile reformatory called the Nickel Academy he finds himself trapped in a grotesque chamber of horrors Elwood s only salvation is his friendship with fellow delinquent Turner which deepens despite Turner s conviction that Elwood is hopelessly naive that the world is crooked and that the only way to survive is to scheme and avoid trouble As life at the Academy becomes ever more perilous the tension between Elwood s ideals and Turner s skepticism leads to a decision whose repercussions will echo down the decades Based on the real story of a reform school that operated for 111 years and warped the lives of thousands of children The Nickel Boys is a devastating driven narrative that showcases a great American novelist writing at the height of his powers and should further cement Whitehead as one of his generation s best Entertainment Weekly Unmasked Paul

Holes,2022-04-26 THE INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER It s a mark of the highest honor when I say it s even more riveting than an episode of Dateline The New York Times From Paul Holes the detective who found the Golden State Killer Unmasked is a memoir that grabs its reader in a stranglehold and proves more fascinating than fiction and darker than any noir narrative LA Magazine I order another bourbon neat This is the drink that will flip the switch I don t even know how I got here to this place to this point Something is happening to me lately I m drinking too much My sheets are soaking wet when I wake up from nightmares of decaying corpses I order another drink and swig it trying to forget about the latest case I can t shake Crime solving for me is more complex than the challenge of the hunt or the process of piecing together a scientific puzzle The thought of good people suffering drives me for better or worse to the point of obsession People always ask how I am able to detach from the horrors of my work Part of it is an innate capacity to compartmentalize the rest is experience and exposure and I ve had plenty of both But I have always taken pride in the fact that I can keep my feelings locked up to get the job done It s only been recently that it feels like all that suppressed darkness is beginning to seep out When I look back at my long career there is a lot I am proud of I have caught some of the most notorious killers of the twenty first century and brought justice and closure for their victims and families I want to tell you about a lifetime solving these cold cases from Laci Peterson to Jaycee Dugard to the Pittsburg homicides to yes my twenty year long hunt for the Golden State Killer But a deeper question eats at me as I ask myself at what cost I have sacrificed relationships joy even fatherhood because the pursuit of evil always came first Did I make the right choice It s something I grapple with every day Yet as I stand in the spot where a young girl took her last breath as I look into the eyes of her family I know that for me there has never been a choice I don t know if I can solve your case I whisper But I promise I will do my best It is a promise I know I can keep

Worlds Apart Benjamin Paloff, 2025-04-29 A number of European authors who survived concentration camps ghettos and besieged cities in the middle of the twentieth century chose not to write straightforward memoirs or testimonials but instead to fictionalize their experiences By manipulating narrative time and point of view and altering biographical facts these writers produced literary texts that challenge common notions of what constitutes an appropriate representation of collective trauma How might such works provide a deeper understanding of historical truth than the facts alone What does the literature of the camps reveal about present day spaces of confinement Worlds Apart explores the ethics of representation by reading the works of writers who use the techniques of literary fiction to depict survival in these precarious spaces Benjamin Paloff traces the complex relationship between fact and truth in these texts disentangling writers individual experiences from fictional elements that universalize that experience and in so doing show the camp to be an institution of the present Touring the unusual genre conventions of these works he weighs crucial questions about what constitutes truth in historical representation literature and the popular imagination Reading across Czech French German Polish Russian and Yiddish including lesser known and untranslated works Paloff considers portrayals of the Shoah the Gulag the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and the blockade of Leningrad Bold nuanced and rich in comparative insight Worlds Apart argues forcefully for the moral urgency of recognizing that the camp is not simply a historical artifact but a basic institution of contemporary society
