Teachers and Testing David A. Goslin,1967-10-02 Discusses the uses and abuses of intelligence testing in our educational systems Dr Goslin examines teachers opinions and practices with regard to tests and finds considerable discrepancies between attitude and behavior He points to the need for formulation of school policies that clearly specify what role teachers are to play in the measurement process Dr Goslin makes several policy recommendations stressing the idea that the measuring process must take into account many aspects of a child s background and characteristics and must guard against premature labeling or over categorization Research in the Teaching of Science ,1962 Bulletin ,1932
