Enlightenment, Ecumenism, Evangel Alan P.F. Sell, 2007-09-01 What is the Gospel and how is it to be commended This question encapsulates the running theme of this collection of papers In five essays Professor Sell discusses some Puritans Cambridge Platonists Quakers and critics of deism and pantheism who sought to articulate the Gospel in the intellectual environment in which they had been set Their underlying concerns are of continuing relevance in current ecumenical discussion as are questions of doctrinal change and development the subjects of two further papers A paper on spirituality echoes some of the concerns of the Separatists Platonists and Quakers but views them in relation to the widespread interest in the topic at the present time Two papers concern the ways in which the Gospel is shared in ecumenical circles with special reference to the Holy Spirit ecclesiology and the Reformed contribution to interconfessional discussion A bibliographical survey of Reformed theology in twentieth century Britain shows the range of interest within one ecclesiastical tradition while such wider issues as contextual theology inclusivism and the peril of sectarianism are discussed in a further paper The book concludes with an attempt to answer the question what is involved in proclaiming the Gospel of reconciliation today
