

New Teacher Troubles

by Kathy Matthews

As first-year teachers enter their second yearings, they learn something or two about what goes on behind the scenes. They learn that classroom management is not always as simple as it seems. They learn that even the most experienced teachers have their own struggles. They learn that the classroom is a place where everyone's voice matters. They learn that the classroom is a place where everyone's voice matters. They learn that the classroom is a place where everyone's voice matters.
