Baroque New Worlds Lois Parkinson Zamora, Monika Kaup, 2010-07-13 Traces the changing nature of Baroque representation across European and Latin American cultures from an imperial aesthetic encoding Catholic ideologies into a means of resistance to colonialism into a mode of postcolonial self definition The Near East, 1923 Babel of the Atlantic Bethany Wiggin, 2019-04-24 Despite shifting trends in the study of Oceanic Atlantic history the colonial Atlantic world as it is described by historians today continues to be a largely English only space even when other language communities are examined they too are considered to be monolingual and discrete Babel of the Atlantic pushes back against this monolingual fallacy by documenting multilingualism translation and fluid movement across linguistic borders Focusing on Philadelphia and surrounding areas that include Germantown Bethlehem and the so called Indian country to the west this volume demonstrates the importance of viewing inhabitants not as members of isolated language communities whether English German Lenape Mohican or others but as creators of a vibrant zone of mixed languages and shifting politics Organized around four themes religion education race and abolitionism and material culture and architecture and drawing from archives such as almanacs newspapers and the material world the chapters in this volume show how polyglot tolerant and multilingual spaces encouraged diverse peoples to coexist Contributors examine subjects such as the multicultural Moravian communities in colonial Pennsylvania the Charity School movement of the 1750s and the activities of Quaker abolitionists showing how educational and religious movements addressed and embraced cultural and linguistic variety Drawing early American scholarship beyond the normative narrative of monolingualism this volume will be invaluable to historians and sociolinguists whose work focuses on Pennsylvania and colonial revolutionary and antebellum America In addition to the editor the contributors include Craig Atwood Patrick M Erben Cynthia G Falk Katherine Faull Wolfgang Fl gel Katharine Gerbner Maruice Jackson Lisa Minardi J rgen Overhoff and Birte Pfleger Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders Epoch Percy MacKaye, 1927 Bibliography v 2 p CIV CVII
