Books for College Libraries: Language and literature, 1988 James Joyce's Early Works in Ireland's Textual Cultures Niels Caul, 2025-10-16 Putting Joyce back into dialogue with other Irish writers of his generation this book shows that his experiments with narrative styles and structures were a renegotiation rather than a rejection of earlier Irish conventions While Joyce is undoubtedly the best known other Irish writers were also influenced by European movements in naturalism and decadence that were shaping European Modernism as it emerged in the 1890s Reading Joyce's works in the context of often forgotten contemporaries such as George Moore George Egerton Hannah Lynch Shan Bullock Forrest Reid and Charlotte O'Connor Eccles enhances our understanding of their works as well as Joyce's both thematically and stylistically and shines a much needed light on previously critically underexamined writers By focusing on the transformation of Joyce from Irish writer to Modernist artist we gain crucial insights into why many of Joyce's contemporaries are not read today despite their initial popularity This book utilises Joyce's troubled publication and reception history to identify the wider trends of the Irish short story cycle and Bildungsroman thereby enhancing readers' understanding of the literary marketplace for Irish books in this period

Hubert Crackanthorpe: Selected Writings William Greenslade, Emanuela Ettorre, 2020-10-19 Hubert Crackanthorpe 1870-1896 made a critically significant contribution to the evolution of the modernist short story in Britain His unexplained death in Paris at the age of 26 cut short a highly promising literary career The striking realism of Crackanthorpe's first collection of short stories Wreckage 1893 followed by the psychologically complex Sentimental Studies and posthumous Last Studies 1896 together with the prose poems of Vignettes 1896 were much admired by Henry James and his contemporaries Dowson Johnson and Symonds as the work of a leading innovative writer of critical Decadence Indeed his stories combine an unrelenting realism with a conscious aestheticizing of their often troubling bleak subject matter As co editor of the short lived periodical The Albermarle and campaigning literary journalist Crackanthorpe was a key critical participant in central literary and artistic debates of the early 1890s facts versus effects in literature the efficacy of realism naturalism questions of taste reticence and the handling of controversial subject matter This fully annotated critical text comprises the most extensive collection to date of Crackanthorpe s writing As well as uncollected stories the volume includes a short story never previously published in book form This edition also contains a selection of Crackanthorpe s critical writings and a bibliographical survey of his work The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1918 The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story*, 1918 Modernism in Irish Women's Contemporary Writing Paige Reynolds, 2023-11-23 Modernism in Irish Women's Contemporary Writing examines the tangled relationship between contemporary Irish women writers and literary modernism In the early decades of the twenty first century Irish women s fiction has drawn widespread critical acclaim and commercial success with a surprising number of these works being commended for their innovative redeployment of literary tactics drawn from early twentieth century literary modernism But this strategy is not a new one Across more than a century writers from Kate O'Brien to Sally Rooney have manipulated and remade modernism to draw attention to the vexed nature of female privacy exploring what unfolds when the amorphous nature of private consciousness bumps up against external ordering structures in the public world Living amid the tenaciously conservative imperatives of church and state in Ireland their female characters are seen to embrace reject and rework the ritual of prayer the fixity of material objects the networks of the digital world and the ordered narrative of the book Such structures provide a stability that is valuable and even necessary for such characters to flourish as well as an instrument of containment or repression that threatens to and in some cases does destroy them The writers studied here among them Elizabeth Bowen Edna O'Brien Anne Enright Anna Burns Claire Louise Bennett and Eimear McBride employ the modernist mode in part to urge readers to recognize that female interiority the prompt for many of the movement s illustrious formal experiments continues to provide a crucial but often overlooked mechanism to imagine ways around and through seemingly intransigent social problems such as class inequity political violence and sexual abuse Border States in the Work of Tom Mac Intyre Catriona Ryan, 2012-01-17 This work analyses the prose and drama of the Irish writer Tom Mac Intyre and the concept of paleo postmodernism It examines how Mac Intyre balances traditional themes with experimentation which in the Irish literary canon is unusual This book argues that Mac Intyre s position in the Irish literary canon is an idiosyncratic one in that he combines two contrary aspects of Irish literature between what Beckett terms as the Yeatsian antiquarians who valorize the Victorian Gael and the others whose aesthetic involves a European influenced breakdown of the object which is associated with Beckett Mac Intyre s experimentation involves a breakdown of the object in order to uncover an unconscious Irish mythological and linguistic space in language His approach to language experimentation is Yeatsian and this is what the author terms as paleo

postmodern Thus the project considers how Mac Intyre incorporates Yeatsian revivalism with postmodern deconstruction in his drama and short stories Canadian Stationer and Office Appliance Journal ... ,1922 Jan 1930 Feb 1932 most issues include the Trade edition of the Canadian bookman Wild Colonial Girl Lisa Colletta, Maureen O'Connor, 2006-08-15 Since the 1960 publication of her first novel The Country Girls award winning Irish writer Edna O'Brien has been both celebrated and maligned Praised for her lyrical prose and vivid female characters and attacked for her frank treatment of sexuality and alleged sensationalism O'Brien and her work seem always to spawn controversy including the past banning in Ireland of several of her works O'Brien's attention to women's concerns such as sex romance marriage and childbirth has often relegated her to critical neglect at best and at worst outright contempt This essay collection promises to be a long overdue critical reevaluation and exciting rediscovery of her oeuvre Wild Colonial Girl situates O'Brien in Irish contexts that allow for an appraisal of her significant contribution to a specifically Irish women's literary tradition while attesting to the potency of writing against patriarchal conventions Each chapter's clear and detailed readings of O'Brien's fiction build a convincing case for her literary political and cultural importance providing an invaluable critical guide for an enriched appreciation of O'Brien and her work Post-Celtic Tiger Ireland and Contemporary Women's Writing Claire Bracken, Tara Harney-Mahajan, 2021-05-09 Post Celtic Tiger Ireland and Contemporary Women's Writing Feminist Interventions and Imaginings analyzes and explores women's writing of the post Tiger period and reflects on the social cultural and economic conditions of this writing's production The Post Celtic Tiger period 2008 in Ireland marks an important moment in the history of women's writing It is a time of increased visibility and publication dynamic feminist activism and collective projects as well as a significant garnering of public recognition to a degree that has never been seen before The collection is framed by interviews with Claire Kilroy and Melatu Uche Okorie two leading figures in the field and closes with Okorie's landmark short story on Direct Provision This Hostel Life The book features the work of leading scholars in the field of contemporary literature with essays on Anu Productions Emma Donoghue Grace Dyas Anne Enright Rita Ann Higgins Marian Keyes Claire Kilroy Eimear McBride Rosaleen McDonagh Belinda McKeon Melatu Uche Okorie Louise O'Neill and Waking The Feminists Reflecting on all the successes and achievements of women's writing in the contemporary period this book also considers marginalization and exclusions in the field especially considering the politics of race class gender sexuality ethnicity nationality and ability The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal LIT Literature Interpretation Theory Elsewhere Yan Ge, 2023-07-11 Longlisted for THE STORY PRIZE A New Yorker BEST BOOK of 2023 MOST ANTICIPATED by Nylon Rolling Stone The Millions From multi award winning author Yan Ge a shimmering genre bending English language debut that announces the next phase in a major literary career As haunting dreamlike and addictive as a melatonin induced slumber Nylon Deft Elsewhere explores the power of language across the Chinese diaspora to either bring people together or push them apart The New York Times In twenty years Yan Ge has authored thirteen books
