artist Theresa Hak Kyung Cha British poet Maggie O Sullivan and diasporic African Caribbean writers Kamau Brathwaite and M NourbeSe Philip Bloomfield sets the work of these five authors within a vigorous tradition including earlier work by Ezra Pound and Walter Benjamin and then shows how these five poets create poems that engender new encounters with pivotal episodes in history such as the English regicide or Korea's traumatized twentieth century Exploring our shared but imperfectly understood history as well as omissions and blind spots in historiography Bloomfield outlines the tension between the irretrievability of effaced historical evidence and the hope that poetry may reconstitute such unrecoverable histories She posits that this tension is fertile engendering a form of aesthetically enacted epistemological enquiry Fascinating and seminal Archaeopoetics pays special attention to the sensuous materiality of texts and most especially to the visual manifestations of poetry The poems in this volume employ the visual imagery of the word itself or incorporate imagery into the poetry to propose persuasive alternatives to narrative or discursive frameworks of historical knowledge *The Life and Labours in Art and Archeology of G.
