Sherkat, 2005-12-19 Advances in food science technology and engineering are occurring at such a rapid rate that obtaining current detailed information is challenging at best While almost everyone engaged in these disciplines has accumulated a vast variety of data over time an organized comprehensive resource containing this data would be invaluable to have The

Hui, 2006 Soldiers and Civil Power Thijs Brocades Zaalberg, 2006 Since the Cold War peace operations have become the core focus of many Western armed forces In these operations the division between civil and military responsibilities often rapidly blurs Among policy makers and in military circles a debate has erupted regarding the scope of the military in stabilizing and reconstructing war torn societies Should soldiers who primarily prepare for combat duties observe a strict segregation between the military sphere and the civilian sphere or become involved in nation building Should soldiers be allowed to venture into the murky arena of public security civil administration humanitarian relief and political and social reconstruction In Soldiers and Civil Power Thijs Brocades Zaalberg draws on military records and in depth interviews with key players to examine international operations in the 1990 s in Cambodia Somalia Bosnia and Kosovo Focusing his historical analysis on the experiences of various battalions in the field he reveals large gaps between this tactical level of operations political strategic decision making and military doctrine By comparing peace operations to examples of counterinsurgency operations in the colonial era and military governance in World War II he exposes the controversial but inescapable role of the Western military in supporting and even substituting civil authorities during military interventions At a time when US forces and its allies struggle to restore order in Iraq and Afghanistan Brocades Zaalberg s in depth study is an invaluable resource not only for military historians but anyone interested in the evolving global mission of armed forces in the twenty first century English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1890
