Guglielmo, 2023-04-15 When the press loses sight of truth and falls prey to bias American press critics push back to safeguard our free and democratic nation Journalists are no strangers to criticism and some have even seen disagreements turn to outrage and acts of violence There is another history of press criticism though This one as a rule doesn t resort to physical threat or denunciation Nevertheless it can be merciless when critics think the press has become too slanted in one direction has fallen short of some ideal is too concentrated for its own good or seems to be underreporting or ignoring some critical story of the day Shame the Devil is a sweeping look at this other history Beginning with Walter Lippmann rightly regarded as the first modern press critic Shame the Devil provides a chapter by chapter profile and analysis of his successors Many critics work within the profession of journalism while some consider it from the outside These include George Seldes A J Liebling Ben Bagdikian Reed Irvine Neil Postman and Noam Chomsky A concluding chapter brings together a diverse group of contemporary critics including Sharyl Attkisson Brooke Gladstone Eric Deggans Amy Goodman Janine Jackson and Candace Owens Merging history biography and a candid analysis of various critical points of view Shame the Devil moves

Media Tactics in the Long Twentieth Century Marie Cronqvist, Fredrik Mohammadi Norén, Emil Stjernholm, 2024-08-08 Integrating media studies with history Media Tactics in the Long Twentieth Century explores the dynamic relationship between tactics and strategies in recent history Drawing on examples from a range of different countries and world regions and looking at the infrastructures entanglements and institutions involved the volume makes a strong case for media tactics as a new field of scholarly inquiry and for the importance of a historically informed approach In contrast to strategic communication approaches this media historical intervention contributes to new knowledge about the practical implementation of strategies First foregrounding tactics as an object of study the volume then counters the presentism of contemporary studies by adding a necessary historical perspective Moreover the book theoretically disentangles the concept of strategy from an abstract contemporary buzzword to concrete hands on actions which in turn reveals the complexity of using media strategies and media tactics in reality This volume will interest scholars and students working in the field of media and communication in general and in the subfields of strategic communication public relations media history and propaganda studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Reviving the Social Compact Naomi Zack, 2018-11-05 Naomi Zack's Reviving the Social Compact Inclusive Citizenship in an Age of Extreme Politics addresses current political and social upheaval and distress with new concepts for the relationship between citizens and government Politics has become turbocharged as a form of agonistic contest where candidates and the public become more focused on winning than on governing or holding the government accountable for the benefit of the people This failure of the government to fulfill its part of the social contract calls for a new social compact wherein citizens as a collective whole make long term resolutions outside of government institutions Analyzing present and evolving events Zack reveals how race has exceeded intersection after formal rights have failed to correct ongoing discrimination how class is no longer based on real life interests and has been manufactured and manipulated for political contest how women have made spectacular progress but how the fame of elite women has left out poor non white women transgender people and sex workers how natural disasters have not been and perhaps cannot be adequately prepared for or responded to by government how environmental preservation becomes politicized how homelessness could be fixed through capitalism and how immigration reform has pivoted from inclusion to expulsion and why hospitality is an important civic virtue Reviving the Social Compact is a call for good citizenship Voting is the first step because in a divided two party system a change from one party to the other is tantamount to revolution and a new understanding of the social compact can lead to the stable civic life we need at this time
