Lifetime of News Lorraine Hillman, 2017-05-31 In the 1960s behind the scenes of a major news station was no place for a woman Yet it was exactly where Lorraine Hillman was meant to be Hillman grew up in Hollywood fascinated with the action packed world of news She read the papers voraciously eventually setting a career in news as her goal and young Hillman took her first step toward that goal in 1957 when she was hired as an entry level secretary for CBS s Television City But Hillman didn t stop there She pestered the bureau chief for a job in the newsroom until six years later she finally landed one with Channel 2 in Los Angeles She was one of only two women among forty two white men The next decades were as interesting offscreen as on Hillman helped cover historical landmarks like the Manson cult and the O J Simpson trial But she also pushed for diversity and inclusion in the newsroom finally seeing more women and minorities added to Channel 2 s staff You don t spend a lifetime in news without collecting a few stories of your own and Hillman s is one of courage and passion See her determination for yourself in this tell all memoir

News Stories Peter Nolan, 2018-03-23 The book is a memoir that chronicles my many years as a broadcast newsman from Niagara Falls to Chicago in the latter half of the twentieth century A former Federal Judge and Governor gets out of prison a policeman on trial for trying to drown his son an alderman runs off with

100K in federal funds the death of President John F Kennedy The disappearance of Rosemary Kennedy homecoming for Jimmy Hoffa how Geraldo Rivera scooped me are just some of the stories included Eddie Barker's Notebook Eddie Barker, John Mark Dempsey, 2006-04 November 22nd 1963 The John F Kennedy s assassination As news director and anchor of KRLD TV Channel 4 then the CBS affiliate in Dallas Eddie Barker stationed himself at the Trade Mart where Kennedy was to speak Of course the president never arrived And so Barker found himself ad libbing on the air knowing that something terrible had happened but not exactly sure of what it was When a doctor acquaintance from nearby Parkland Hospital whispered the awful news in his ear Eddie made what has been called the greatest snap evaluation of a source in broadcasting history Eddie Barker became the first reporter to announce to America that John F Kennedy was dead Certainly Barker s reporting on the assassination and all the other events closely associated with it are at the heart of this book But this is also a book by one of the true pioneers of local television news as well as being a rich memoir of Dallas from the 50s to the 80s To the Four Corners, the Memoirs of a News Photographer; Bernard Grant, 2015-09-02 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant A Reporter's Life Walter Cronkite, 1997-10-28 IMMEDIATELY ENGROSSING A SPLENDID MEMOIR The Wall Street Journal Run don t walk to the nearest bookstore and treat yourself to the most heartwarming nostalgia producing book you will have read in many a year Ann Landers Entertaining The story of a modest man who succeeded extravagantly by remaining mostly himself His memoir is a short course on the flow of events in the second half of this century events the world knows more about because of Walter Cronkite s work The New York Times Book Review A MAIN SELECTION OF THE BOOK OF THE MONTH CLUB You Should Have Been Here Yesterday Garrick Utley, 2000-11-08 QuickTime video with sound contains memorable Utley reports and dramatic footage from the heyday of network news jacket News to Me Laurie Hertzell, Memoir of journalist Laurie Hertzell discussing how she first got into the newspaper business even before she was a teenager and how her career took off from there in Duluth Minnesota Walter's Perspective Walter Jacobson, 2012-10-08 This highly readable book provides a unique glimpse into the rough and tumble Chicago news business as seen through the eyes of one of its legendary players

From his first news job working as a legman for Daily News columnist Jack Mabley in the 1950s to his later role as a news anchor and political commentator at CBS owned WBBM Walter Jacobson battled along the front lines of an industry undergoing dramatic changes While it is ultimately Jacobson s story a memoir of a long and distinguished and sometimes highly controversial career it is also an insider s account of the inner workings of Chicago television news including the ratings games the process of defining news and choosing stories the media s power and its failures and the meddling by corporate and network executives As a reporter Jacobson was regularly contentious and confrontational He was fired on a number of occasions and was convicted of libeling tobacco company Brown and Williamson resulting in a multimillion dollar federal court judgment against him and CBS Yet it was this gutsy attitude that put him at the top of the news game With an engaging writing style Jacobson recollects his interactions with Chicago mayors Richard J and Richard M Daley Jane Byrne Harold Washington and Rahm Emanuel recounts his coverage of such fascinating news stories as the violent 1968 Democratic National Convention and the execution of convicted mass murderer John Wayne Gacy and recalls his reporting on and interviews with Louis Farrakhan governors George Ryan and Rod Blagojevich and Barack Obama More than a memoir Walter s Perspective is the extraordinary journey of one reporter whose distinctive career followed the changing face of Chicago s local news

From out of the past came the thundering hoofbeats of the great horse Silver The Lone Ranger rides again booms the voice of the Merita bread announcer as the coconut shells make the hoofbeat noise on a table in the background Now if you remember that phrase then you are old enough to really enjoy this book We return to the times when a vivid imagination played a very important role in the enjoyment of life and hopefu lly we can take you back to some of the good times I have endeavored to cover a lot of monumental incidents that happened over the years that affected me and I hope affected you as well If you are a young person you will learn a lot of history If you are older you will remember quite a bit of it If a senior well more than likely you ll remember most of it It s called a lifetime and though it seems like an eternity when you are young it is but a fleeting moment on the scales of time I have always maintained that if you are writing something make it interesting enough for people not to have wasted their precious time reading I sincerely hope that that is the case in this endeavor As you read through this dissertation I hope you will remind yourself that through all the stresses in daily living life is still just a hoot With kindest regards and a good read

Somebody's Gotta Tell It Jack Newfield, 2002-04-20 Jack Newfield has covered it all he has documented he unfolding drama of the 1960s followed the boxing careers of Ali and Tyson taken on city hall and kept his integrity intact in the rough world of tabloid politics Somebody s Gotta Tell It is the clear eyed memoir of a journalist whose love for his country and passion for his profession has never wavered A Red in the House Stephen Fleischman, 2004 What did CBS and ABC not know about Steve Fleischman during his thirty years in network news and why did they not know it In A Red in the House Stephen Fleischman tells of the political landmines in the mainstream media that marked the Cold War era Although the Communist Party disintegrated out from under me in the mid 1950s I found Marxism a valuable tool for analyzing the political and economic world around me During those thirty years I worked with the best in mainstream broadcast journalism Walter Cronkite Ed Murrow Fred Friendly Dan Rather Howard K Smith Eric Sevareid Peter Jennings Charles Kuralt Harry Reasoner Roone Arledge Bill Redeker Brit Hume and more Stephen Fleischman A Red in the House is replete with anecdotes and sidebar stories relating to the inner conflicts in the making of the TV news documentary A Red in the House portrays a graphic picture of how the mainstream media arrived at the sorry state it is in today With five corporate media giants controlling most of what we see hear and read this story is even more relevant today The Newsmen Dick McMichael, 2005 This is the story of a small town Southern boy who grows up to be a local television icon Following Dick McMichael's life from the early years of radio to today's television we experience the great changes in the industry and the country We also learn how he grew up in the segregated South and ended up working with a black female co anchor who owes her first break in TV news to him It is an inside look at the stresses and pressures that shape the broadcast newsrooms of America It begins shortly after radio broadcasting began in the United States You could say that broadcasting and I grew up together Radio broadcasting was born in Columbus in 1928 in a dressing room of the brand new Royal Theater when WRBL went on the air I was born two years later We move with young Dick through the tough years of the Great Depression when his family's small home was crowded with relatives who needed some place to stay until work could be found again through World War Two when he saw his big brother brother in law and first cousin head overseas with the U S Army while he as a Boy Scout collected old newspapers for the war effort All of this is paralleled by changes in the world of broadcasting We follow his career from the time he was a seventeen year old radio announcer to the height of his radio career at WSB in Atlanta and to his television days in Columbus Atlanta and Columbia South Carolina We see him get into hot water and almost fired as a result of his investigative reporting at one station We get a firsthand look at what goes on inside the walls of broadcast newsrooms and how economics affects the way news is covered and reported We see both sides of the organized labor movement as he on one hand represents his fellow members in a union contract negotiation with one station and on the other hand when he is on the other side of the fence as a vice president of news when a union tries to organize the staff at another station Dick McMichael has seen the way broadcast news has changed from its inception until right now He has seen entertainment and commercial considerations triumph over serious journalism He has also suffered personal tragedies losing his dear wife to a chronic disease but he has also has children and grandchildren to enjoy His story is important because television news affects every one of us everyday Not just network television news but the hundreds of local television news operations that reach and affect just as many or even more people He was honored by the Georgia Association of Broadcasters with the 2004 GAB Broadcaster of the Year Gabby Award
