Building News Literacy Tom Bober, 2021-01-05 Every upper elementary and middle school educator can teach news literacy and connected literacies including text visual graphic and video literacy using this book This book suggests that news literacy is made up of several other literacies and skills that must not only be explored across the subject areas but also connected to students real world consuming and sharing habits A series of lessons some using technology lay a foundation for building these multiple literacies and skills While not meant to be a complete program the lessons provide a holistic experience and are adaptable to personalize students learning The author melds strategies for finding and making meaning from information the multiple literacies that young consumers of news must be familiar with to navigate news and other information and the digital skills necessary to navigate today s news options Whether students encounter news in the firewall protected classroom or pushed out to them on their phones the series of lessons encourage them to give pause and ask important questions as they move beyond simply consuming to become critical readers of the news

Continually Reassessing Students Needs Insight from ELT tertiary Dwi Poedjiastutie, Alfi Syukrin, Laela Hikmah Nurbatra, Hartono, Anisa Kurniadhani Suryo Putri, Novi Indriyani, Iqbal Alfian Rusydi, Zulis Astuti, Nabila Dhiya Permatasari, Fitria Nur Mufida, Nur Istiningrum, Anicha Ramadhani Nur Rahma, 2022-06-16 Even though ESP is not a new phenomenon in Indonesia many teachers still face a lot of challenges in real classroom implementation and practices Many scholars also have claimed that ESP is a part of ELT like General English GE Both have something in common but to some extent they also have differences Therefore the ESP pedagogy and approaches should also be treated differently from

the pedagogy of other ELT types such as GE This book hopefully provides some insight to teachers who need to shift between GE and ESP The ideas of ESP are mostly derived from the research project conducted by the English Language Education Department under the supervision of Dwi Poedjiastutie and Laela Hikmah Nurbatra These researches mainly focus on ESP teaching at the University of Muhammadiyah Malang under the auspice of the Language Centre The research selected for this book covered a different range of ESP topics In the first chapter of the book the Poedjiastutie discusses the ESP teacher recruitment process at one of the universities in Indonesia Indonesia is one of the countries that had also been developing ESP projects in vocational schools academies and universities Many teachers of EFL make the transition to teach ESP because the number of students who need ESP learning is increasing from year to year The curriculum and the pedagogy of the teaching institution need to adapt to the situation When the curriculum fails to identify the need and the demand of ESP in this university the ESP system needs serious attention since teachers is a central role in the education system
