

The background of the cover is a blue-tinted photograph of a Ferris wheel. In the upper right corner, there is a small inset graph showing a parabola $y = -x^2 + 2x$ and a line $x = y^2$ intersecting at the origin and at the point (1, 1). The area between the curves is shaded in yellow. The graph is plotted on a coordinate system with x and y axes, and the origin is labeled O.
