Public Diplomacy on the Front Line Hayle Gadelha, 2023-11-14 The Exhibition of Modern Brazilian Paintings held at the Royal Academy of Arts of London and seven other major venues throughout the United Kingdom in 1944 and 1945 was the first collective display of Brazil's art shown in the United Kingdom and the largest ever sent abroad until then It resulted from an initiative championed by the Brazilian Foreign Ministry and envisioned by 70 Modernist painters who donated 168 artworks as a contribution to the Allied War effort Notwithstanding its historical relevance and unmatched scale this event had never been academically investigated Through exploring why and how successfully the Brazilian government devoted superlative efforts to this enterprise in the midst of World War II this book is intended to fill this gap and gain an understanding of a largely neglected public aspect of a deeply studied period of Brazilian foreign policy The research unearthed abundant firsthand documents to reconstruct the episode adopting the hermeneutic method and a theoretical framework from the Public Diplomacy and Cultural Diplomacy fields in order to interpret the circumstances that made possible this improbable and challenging endeavor It contends that the Exhibition was a remarkably innovative action of Public Diplomacy avant la lettre which aimed at engaging with British society and enhancing the image of Brazil and its culture Its motivations must be understood within the broader foreign policy focused on obtaining prestige and repositioning Brazil in the postwar international order which encompassed the deployment of 25 000 troops to fight in Europe The research further claims that the initiative was intended and managed to achieve a substantial impact on views about Brazil by means of conveying a well planned message
