Beyond Self-Care Potato Chips Amber Wardell, 2024-10-29 From a cognitive psychologist a trusted voice among millennial women a call to action for readers everywhere to enter their true self care era that will nourish and sustain them Toxic self care culture tells women that bubble baths and Botox are the route to happiness and fulfillment Though these types of self care can fill us up in the moment they cannot provide long lasting nourishment They are empty calories the potato chips of self care And from them we can never get full In the same way we will not feel fulfilled by reaching for the empty calorie self care trends that toxic materialistic self care culture sells us To fill our exhausted bodies and weary minds to live fully and authentically we need the kind of self care that nourishes Beyond Self Care Potato Chips is a call to action for women everywhere to reach instead for nourishing self care Though this may sound easy in theory many women struggle to carry it out We struggle because we have forgotten how to reach Our training as little girls taught us that it is polite to be grateful for what we get To say thank you but I m full when offered second helpings To accept the potato chips we are given because there are people on this planet who have none so how dare we ask for more Through the narrative voice of a psychologist who is also an exhausted millennial mom trying to keep it all together Beyond Self Care Potato Chips explores courageous self care in the areas of marriage motherhood family dynamics friendships career life and mental health The author s personal stories range from the hilariously yet painfully relatable to the resonantly heart rending Each of these stories the beautiful the sparkling the sad and the chaotic teach women something about what it means to reach What it means to stop settling for potato chips and to instead grasp for the things that truly fulfill Beyond Self Care Potato Chips is a mindset a way of embracing and stepping into all of our divine feminine power Outing Magazine Poultney Bigelow, James Henry Worman, Ben James Worman, Caspar Whitney, Albert Britt, 1906 Unseen-Unheard Amity Pierce Buxton, R. L. Pinely, 2013-06 When presumably heterosexual spouses turn out to be gay lesbian bisexual or transgender the unexpected revelation overshadows its devastating impact on their straight wives and husbands Unseen Unheard opens the window on their remarkable journeys from trauma to transformation What would you do if your husband said he d fallen in love with a man or thinks he might be gay or bisexual or you discovered your wife s texts photos or emails indicating she has a female lover and wonders if she might be lesbian or bisexual Well this happens a shattering reality that at least two million men and women have faced and tried to understand and accept even as we were unseen and our voices unheard Who are we We are husbands and wives left behind when our spouses came out or after we discovered they were gay lesbian bisexual or transgender Shocked and paralyzed swirling in the devastating wake of our beloveds revelation we had to pick up unrecognizable pieces of our former lives and try to reconfigure them without much outside support recognition or understanding of the depth of the crisis Yes straight spouses typically cope alone with unique issues of sexuality betrayal and broken belief systems Slowly we redefine ourselves create new lives affirm the joy of living and reap life s infinite possibilities

We invite you to walk with us and experience our journey from the first desperate cries of discovery or disclosure to insights and wisdom gained as we resolve our issues and transform our lives As you observe and listen we hope you will embrace the courage creativity and resilience of our strength which we didn't know we had yet was so powerful that lifelong habits were broken and we uniquely and marvelously became who we were meant to be About the Authors Amity Pierce Buxton her Ph D from Columbia University has taught grades pre school through graduate school Member of the American Psychological Association she serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Bisexuality and the Journal of GLBT Family Studies and on the board of the Catholic Association for Gay and Lesbian Ministry She wrote The Other Side of the Closet the Coming Out Crisis for Straight Spouses and Families and founded the worldwide Straight Spouse Network Currently she counsels spouses and couples conducts research writes articles and chapters lectures and gives workshops on all aspects of the impact of a spouse coming out in a mixed orientation or transgender non transgender marriage R L Pinely writes Collaborating with Amity to write this book has been an amazing journey Absorbing her expertise has been a rare privilege as we lived vicariously through the lives of others and walked in their shoes As owner of an online support group I'm so thankful that I have the opportunity every day to pass along her wisdom insight experience and understanding to nearly 3 000 women Visit the Straight Spouse Network website www.straightspouse.org Thematic Guide to Young Adult Literature Alice L.

Trupe, 2006-05-30 Contemporary young adult literature is a relatively new genre This guide provides an overview of the burgeoning field focusing primarily on fiction Each of the 32 chapters is devoted to a theme of special significance to young adults and provides brief critical discussions of several related literary works Chapters close with lists of fiction for further reading An appendix groups works according to additional themes and a selected bibliography cites relevant critical studies

Asian America Rising Diane Wong, Mark Tseng-Putterman, 2025-09-16 A collection of movement flashpoints and insurgent visions for Asian American activism In the late 1960s Asian American political activism emerged to unite disparate Asian diasporic communities living in the United States behind a radical political identity shaped by the Black Power and anti imperialist movements of their times Today Asian Americans are more diverse and at times more politically divided than ever before In media and electoral politics Asian Americans are celebrated as the fastest growing racial demographic in the United States and claimed as evidence of racial progress Yet the rise of Asian America rarely centers the coordinated forms of grassroots political organizing that Asian Americans have used to shape their place in society In Asian America Rising Diane Wong and Mark Tseng Putterman bring together an interdisciplinary group of established and emerging scholars of Asian American activism and politics community organizers artists archivists and others to highlight the diversity of twenty first century Asian American political movements across a number of critical areas Based on deep collaborations between scholars and frontline organizers contributors like Diane Fujino Vichet Chhuon Lakshmi Sridaran and Kim Compoc examine different facets of the Asian American political experience including the impact of immigrant detention and deportation the emergence of conservative Chinese American opposition to affirmative action in higher education abolitionist perspectives on the Stop Asian Hate movement and transnational resistance to U S economic and military dominance in Hawai i the Philippines and Okinawa Ultimately Wong and Tseng Putterman show important shifts and emergent directions for Asian American politics in the twenty first century Focusing on grassroots mobilization and bold interventions beyond the formal political sphere they shine a light on the diversity and power of Asian American political activism cultural work community building mutual aid and multiracial issue based organizing

Love Unites Us Kevin M. Cathcart,Leslie J. Gabel-Brett,2014-04-01 Firsthand accounts from the attorneys and advocates who brought the historic cases and fought to secure the freedom to marry for same sex couples The June 2015 decision in Obergefell v Hodges was a sweeping victory for the freedom to marry but it was one step in a long process Love Unites Us is the history of activists passion and persistence in the struggle for marriage rights for same sex couples in the United States told in the words of those who waged the battle Launching the fight for the freedom to marry had neither an obvious nor an uncontested strategy To many activists achieving marriage equality seemed far fetched but the skeptics were proved wrong in the end Proactive arguments in favor of love family and commitment were more effective than arguments that focused on rights and the goal of equality at work Telling the stories of people who loved and cared for one another in sickness and in health cut through the antigay noise and moved people not without backlash and not overnight but faster than most activists and observers had ever imagined With compelling stories from leading attorneys and activists including Evan Wolfson Mary L Bonauto Jon W Davidson and Paul M Smith Love Unites Us explains how gay and lesbian couples achieved the right to marry An exceptional piece of work by courageous and innovative leaders Eric H Holder Jr 82nd US attorney general Captures the amazing story of the fight for marriage equality in California and around the country A remarkable journey recounted with truth and eloquence Gavin Newsom governor of California
