

MASTHEAD includes title of newspaper. The font implies the legacy or age of the newspaper and that it can be trusted. The French "Dieu et mon droit" means "God and my right," comes from the coat of arms of the Royal Family: the paper is pro-monarchy, pro-religion, conservative in VALUES and IDEOLOGIES. It believes in free market economics, among many other beliefs.

DATELINE

INSIDE STORY

Contrasting images of two famous couples (STAR POWER) for the reader to compare/contrast male actors and ageing process. The paper is MID-MARKET which means it will focus on serious issues plus celebrity stories.

SIDEBAR with an unrelated story. First names are used as the audience are expected to know Meghan, Harry and their status. Reinforces pro-monarchy stance of paper as first names show familiarity with Harry/Meghan.

IMAGE (4 colour picture): slightly poor quality could mean it's been taken from social media.

CAPTION to explain image. "Estranged: Meghan, right, and her half-sister, Samantha." Fans of royal family will be keen to know more.

PAGE LEAD: the COPY or BODY TEXT that tells the story behind the headline.

3 x CROSS-REFERENCES

1. SEE PAGES 30-31
2. SEE PAGE FIVE
3. Turn to Page 6

KICKER is the text above the headline. If it's below, call it the STRAPLINE. Audience will know what GPs means and the use of "treble" could be an alarming statistic – we don't know the period of time this trebling has taken.

HEADLINE uses colloquial language to convey its story: "hooked" suggests an addiction, "nation" signifies the UK and "happy pills" is a fairly derogatory term for anti-depression medication.

This is a negative portrayal of the medication since the phrase "happy pills" diminishes the seriousness of depression and of mental illness.

BYLINE of journalist 'Medical Correspondent' suggests specialist knowledge. Reinforces the view of the paper can be trusted.

HEADLINE & KICKER analysis

The headline and kicker provide a mix of factual and emotive language. The "A Nation Hooked" is an ASSERTIVE STATEMENT and suggests the event has happened/is still happening and cannot be reversed. The "heads towards top of world table" is usually something to be proud of in another CONTEXT (e.g. Olympic medal wins, education league tables) but here is negative. There is an implicit shame in being top of a statistical table of mental health medical treatment. The underlying IDEOLOGY could be that the newspaper disagrees with prescribing medicine for something that may be treatable by other means.

COPY analysis: it turns out that this study is from figures over the span of 15 years which makes the alarming TONE of the language the reporting uses potentially misleading.

Francisco Escobedo, Stephen John Livesley, Justin Morgenroth, 2018-04-13 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue

Urban and Periurban Forest Diversity and Ecosystem Services that was published in Forests Qualitative Analysis Using NVivo Nicholas H. Woolf, Christina Silver, 2017-09-20 Software is cut and dried every button you press has a predictable effect but qualitative analysis is open ended and unfolds in unpredictable ways This contradiction is best resolved by separating analytic strategies what you plan to do from software tactics how you plan to do it Expert NVivo users have unconsciously learned to do this The Five Level QDA method unpacks the process so that you can learn it consciously and efficiently The first part of the book explains how the contradiction between analytic strategies and software tactics is reconciled by translating between them The second part provides both an in depth description of how NVivo works and comprehensive instruction in the five steps of translation These steps are illustrated with examples from a variety of research projects The third part contains real world qualitative research projects from a variety of disciplines methodologies and kinds of qualitative analysis all illustrated in NVivo using the Five Level QDA method The book is accompanied by three sets of video demonstrations on the companion website The book and accompanying videos illustrate the Windows version of NVivo As there are some differences in screen and interface design between the Mac and Windows versions please watch the video The NVivo Mac Interface in the Component Orientation series of videos available on the companion website The Five Level QDA method is based on the authors combined 40 years of experience teaching NVivo and other software packages used as platforms for conducting qualitative analysis After many years observing their students challenges they developed the Five Level QDA method to describe the process that long time NVivo experts unconsciously adopt The Five Level QDA method is independent of software program or methodology and the principles apply to any type of qualitative project Please see the following URL to access the accompanying materials for this book <https://www.qdaservices.co.uk/five-level-qda> Appraisal, Sentiment and Emotion Analysis in Political Discourse Claudia Roberta Combei, Valeria Reggi, 2023-11-16 This book adopts a multi method multimodal approach to the study of online political communication applying it to case studies from the United Kingdom France and Italy towards offering a portrait of the rapid ideological shifts in contemporary Western democracies The volume introduces an integrated framework combining Sentiment and Emotion Analysis rooted in lexical semantics and the qualitative dimensions of Appraisal Theory applying it to large corpora of online political communication from the United Kingdom France and Italy Combei and Reggi highlight their combined potential in analysing the multimodal resources in such discourses and in turn revealing fresh insights into layers of subtext and the ways in which parties and movements frame their political programmes and values The authors also take into account culture and language specific variables across the three countries in shaping such discourses The volume makes the case for an integrated methodological framework that can be uniquely applied to better understand the multimodal communicative landscape of divisiveness in today's rapidly shifting political climate and other forms of online communication more broadly This book will be of interest to students and scholars in digital communication political communication multimodality and qualitative and quantitative discourse analysis especially those interested in corpus assisted approaches Social Research Methods Sigmund Grønmo, 2023-11-22 Framing research as the process of asking and answering questions this book demonstrates how to identify good research questions and how to structure and explore them successfully Whether you are just beginning your research journey or are a seasoned traveller it helps you Decide what you want to achieve with your research Know what options you have to explore your goals Navigate the nuances of different research approaches Understand the decisions of other researchers Choose what path best suits your project Through real life examples demonstrating different types of research the book introduces qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches so you can compare different methods at every stage of the research process from initial idea and design to data collection and analysis This new edition includes new chapters on collecting and analysing mixed methods data and additional content on qualitative data analysis New examples reflect the cultural and global diversity of social research and extra visual aids and summaries support understanding of key research concepts and stages The book is accompanied by an online teaching guide including videos additional case studies annotated articles and critical thinking exercises Corpus-Based Analysis of Ideological Bias

Anna Isentyeva, 2020-10-26 Corpus Based Analysis of Ideological Bias presents research combining a range of corpus linguistic techniques which are employed to analyse how migration discourse is re constructed in the contemporary British press Two specialised corpora containing 1 000 news reports editorials and opinion pieces from five major national British newspapers were collected and annotated for this research The event separating these two corpora is the 2016 referendum on Britain s membership of the European Union EU In its analysis this book employs both quantitative and qualitative analytical methods with four case studies offering a broad perspective on how the topical socio political issues of migration and asylum seeking are represented by left and right wing British newspapers explores how newspapers reveal their political orientation and promote their political agenda by employing specific linguistic patterns and discursive strategies in this case in the representation of the key social actors within migration discourse provides case studies that place a particular focus on the discourses surrounding European migrants and migration within the EU which proved to be a very popular topic in the British press both before and after the 2016 EU membership referendum and offers a comparative corpus analysis that seeks to ascertain whether media discourse regarding EU migration has changed in the wake of the referendum This book is a useful source not only for students of English linguistics and media studies but also for researchers in the fields of applied corpus linguistics critical discourse studies contemporary media analysis and metaphor research Contrastive Media

Analysis Stefan Hauser, Martin Luginbühl, 2012-11-13 The study of media texts and culture s and especially the analysis of interdependent relationships between them has become a major concern in various academic fields such as intercultural communication contrastive textology comparative cultural studies historical and intercultural pragmatics Starting from the observation that in contrastive studies of mass media communication not only the theoretical status of culture often remains unclear but also the interdependent relation between the theoretical conceptualization of culture and the methodological approach of text analysis this volume brings together linguistic mass media studies with intercultural diachronic intermedia and interlingual perspectives Apart from offering new empirical insights into the field this volume s aim is to advance and to broaden the methodological and theoretical discussions involved Comparing such diverse formats and genres like newspapers TV news shows TV commercials radio phone ins obituaries fanzines and film subtitles the contributions of this volume illustrate the complexity of the growing field of contrastive media analysis
