reference work the Guidebook presents succinct discussions of state and local taxes describing the general provisions of the respective tax laws and regulations and highlighting significant cases and administrative rulings This annual publication is useful to tax practitioners in state and multistate businesspersons and those who are obligated to file Illinois returns or who are required to deal with Illinois taxes Guidebook to New York Taxes 2003 Mark S. Klein, 2002-12 Guidebook to Pennsylvania Taxes Charles L. Potter, Jr., Shelby D. Bennett, Philip E. Cook, Jr., 2008-12 The Good Neighbor Guidebook for Colorado Nancy S. Greif, Erin J. Johnson, 2000 The West is changing and these days natives and newcomers alike need a lot of basic information to cope with issues that arise from increasing population and changing land use regulations on both the local and federal levels The Good Neighbor Guidebook for Colorado is an essential resource for anyone living in Colorado today Arising from a seminar organized by the authors in Durango this valuable collection features articles by some thirty five expert contributors ranging from builders to lawyers to land use specialists and more The book focuses on land stewardship basics of Colorado law working with local governments issues of recreation public lands and tribal lands protecting our western heritage and avoiding and resolving problems In Colorado at the turn of the 21st century the trend seems to be away from traditional strong relationship based communities toward pseudo communities that often are a collection of short term alliances to fight common enemies The re establishment of strong neighbor relationships with appreciation not only for shared values but for diverse opinions can reverse this unfortunate trend The Good Neighbor Guidebook for Colorado offers every citizen the tools to build better communities Guidebook to Florida Taxes James M. Ervin, Jr., 2008-10 Policy and Governance in the Water-Energy-Food Nexus Anastasia Koulouri, Nikolai Mouraviev, 2019-08-08 This book discusses the balance of priorities within the Water Energy Food WEF nexus and its impact on policy development and implementation highlighting innovative perspectives in adopting a holistic approach to identify analyse and manage the nexus component interdependencies Due to increasing demands for natural resources the WEF nexus has emerged as a response to the numerous global challenges Addressing WEF challenges often involves balancing multiple and competing priorities and identifying and managing interrelations synergies and trade offs between the three components of the nexus In this volume the authors focus on the dynamics between multiple stakeholders such as governments businesses NGOs and local communities when addressing WEF challenges by adopting a nexus approach The book argues that effective engagement of multiple stakeholders can address difficulties arising from the introduction of an integrated approach to WEF policy design and implementation increasing the potential benefits The book also looks at the effect of international relations and regional power struggles on resolving cross border WEF nexus issues Case studies are drawn from Kenya Central Asia USA and Peru highlighting key themes such as how collaborative governance enabled and facilitated by relational equity management can be viewed as an innovative way to reconcile competing priorities The combination of theoretical and case study chapters makes the book of interest to a wide audience including scholars and advanced students of sustainable development agriculture and food studies water and energy policy design and governance as well as to practitioners working in the fields of water energy and food security Exploring the Use and Impact of Travel Guidebooks Victoria Peel, Anders Sørensen, 2016-02-04 This volume provides the first comprehensive examination of travel guidebooks and their conceptualisation use and impact Guidebooks have been key tourism paraphernalia for almost two centuries and although researched in some areas academic knowledge on guidebooks in tourism has not been expansively communicated The uncritical unreflective and largely pejorative approach to guidebooks in the public sphere and to some degree also present in academia is reassessed in this book This challenges the current limited tourism research approaches to the topic including the routinely held assumption that the internet has all but destroyed the printed guidebook This book will be a useful resource for postgraduate students and researchers in tourism and tourism communications and consumption

Heritage, Indigenous Doing, and Wellbeing Norm Sheehan, David S. Jones, Josh Creighton, Sheldon Harrington, 2023-12-15 Heritage Indigenous Doing and Wellbeing presents an Aboriginal Australian relational understanding of the world that offers a counter narrative to the Western notion of heritage and new insights into the potential for sustaining the complex systems that support all life From an Indigenous Australian perspective the Western concept of heritage is intentionally exclusionary and supports social political economic and environmental injustice Aboriginal People engage with landscape every day in entirely different ways seeing Country as a living heritage but in a unique relationship form that engages the individual with place ancestors language and wellbeing However Country is most often relegated by heritage proponents to intangible heritage and this results in the concept having little legislative legal or administrative weight Drawing on a common understanding of Country as sacred living and sentient rather than as objectified property or resource the contributors to this book explore a diversity of relationships with Country that demonstrate the richness and the practical utility of this relational understanding Heritage Indigenous Doing and Wellbeing foregrounds the voices of Australian Aboriginal People who are involved in Caring for Country It will be an essential resource for those engaged in the study of Country heritage museums Indigenous Peoples landscape architecture environmental studies planning and archaeology It will also be of great interest to heritage practitioners working around the globe
