Motivating Change: Sustainable Design and Behaviour in the Built Environment Robert Crocker, Steffen Lehmann, 2013-07-24 Today's most pressing challenges require behaviour change at many levels from the city to the individual. This book focuses on the collective influences that can be seen to shape change. Exploring the underlying dimensions of behaviour change in terms of consumption, media, social innovation and urban systems, the essays in this book are from many disciplines including architecture, urban design, industrial design and engineering, sociology, psychology, cultural studies, waste management and public policy. Aimed especially at designers and architects, Motivating Change explores the diversity of current approaches to change and the multiple ways in which behaviour can be understood as an enactment of values and beliefs, standards and habitual practices in daily life and more broadly in the urban environment.

Working with Students with Disabilities Theresa A. Quigney, Jeannine R. Studer, 2016-01-22 Like no other book available, Working with Students with Disabilities: A Guide for School Counselors provides comprehensive coverage of school counselors' roles in special education and working with students with disabilities and connects that coverage to both the ASCA national model and CACREP standards. In Working with Students with Disabilities, school counselors will find thoughtful analyses of the legal and regulatory basis for many of the practices in special education, including an overview of pertinent laws including the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. They will gain an in-depth understanding of the leadership role that school counselors should play in supporting students, teachers and families, and they will also come away with an understanding of the common challenges like bullying, cyberbullying and successful transitioning from high school to adult life to which students with disabilities may be more vulnerable, as well as less common challenges such as behavioral difficulties, autism spectrum disorders and many more. The American Cancer Society's Principles of Oncology The American Cancer Society, 2017-12-15 Developed by the American Cancer Society, this new textbook designed for a wide range of learners and practitioners is a comprehensive reference covering the diagnosis of cancer and a range of related issues that are key to a multidisciplinary approach to cancer and critical to cancer control and may be used in conjunction with the book The American Cancer Society's Oncology in Practice: Clinical Management, edited by leading clinicians in the field and a stellar contributor list from the US and Europe. This book is written in an easy-to-understand style by multidisciplinary teams of medical oncologists, radiation oncologists and other specialists reflecting day-to-day decision making and clinical practice. Input from pathologists, surgeons, radiologists and other specialists is included wherever relevant and comprehensive treatment guidelines are provided by expert contributors where there is no standard recognized treatment. This book is an ideal resource for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of cancer prevention, screening and follow-up, which are central to the ACS's worldwide mission on cancer control. The professional libraries Debates on U.S. Immigration Judith Gans, Elaine M. Replogle, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-08-17 This issues based reference work available in both print and electronic formats shines a spotlight on immigration policy in the United States The U S is a nation of immigrants Yet while the lofty words enshrined with the Statue of Liberty stand as a source of national pride the rhetoric and politics surrounding immigration policy all too often have proven far less lofty In reality the apparently open invitation of Lady Liberty seldom has been without restriction Throughout our history impassioned debates about the appropriate scope and nature of such restriction have emerged and mushroomed among politicians among scholars of public policy among the general public In light of the need to keep students researchers and other interested readers informed and up to date on status of U S immigration policy this volume uses introductory essays followed by point counterpoint articles to explore prominent and perennially important debates providing readers with views on multiple sides of this complex issue While there are some brief works looking at debates on immigration as well as some general A to Z encyclopedias we offer more in depth coverage of a much wider range of themes and issues thus providing the only fully comprehensive point counterpoint handbook tackling the issues that political science history and sociology majors are asked to explore and to write about as students and that they will grapple with later as policy makers and citizens

Features Benefits The volume is divided into three sections each with its own Section Editor Labor Economic Debates Judith Gans Social Cultural Debates Judith Gans and Political Legal Debates Daniel Tichenor Sections open with a Preface by the Section Editor to introduce the broad theme at hand and provide historical underpinnings Each section holds 12 chapters addressing varied aspects of the broad theme of the section Chapters open with an objective lead in piece or headnote followed by a point article and a counterpoint article All pieces headnote point article counterpoint article are signed For each chapter students are referred to further readings data sources and other resources as a jumping off spot for further research and more in depth exploration Finally volume concludes with a comprehensive index and the electronic version includes search and browse features as well as the ability to link to further readings cited within chapters should they be available to the library in electronic format Child labour among pastoralist communities Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2024-07-01 This study provides in depth insights about the status of children working in pastoral communities engaging in livestock related activities in the Karamoja subregion of Uganda it provides key analysis in terms of the prevalence extent and causes while highlighting policy gaps to address child labour in this specific subsector and community s social organization Evidence from this study reveals that children in Karamoja start engaging in unpaid work aged as young as 5 years for unpaid family work and less than 10 years for paid tasks The results also show that children are highly exposed to risky activities and at least two of the top five tasks performed by boys and girls are ranked as being very risky Parents in Karamoja subregion have poor birth records which exacerbate child labour Given the close association between child labour and education the study also obtained information regarding school attendance Lastly based on these findings with surveyed households the study identifies key policy implications and recommendations

Criminal Justice Policy and Planning Wayne N. Welsh, Philip W. Harris, 2016-03-31 Unlike other textbooks on the subject Criminal Justice Policy and Planning Planned Change Fifth Edition presents a comprehensive and structured account of the process of administering planned change in the criminal justice system Welsh and Harris detail a simple yet sophisticated seven stage model which offers students and practitioners a full account of program and policy development from beginning to end The authors thoughtfully discuss the steps analyzing a problem setting goals and objectives designing the program or policy action planning implementing and monitoring evaluating outcomes and reassessing and reviewing Within these steps students focus on performing essential procedures such as conducting a systems analysis specifying an impact model identifying target populations making cost projections collecting monitoring data and performing evaluations In reviewing these steps and procedures students can develop a full appreciation for the challenges inherent in the process and understand the tools that they require to meet those challenges To provide for a greater understanding of the material the text uses a wide array of real life case studies and examples of programs and policies Examples include policies such as Restorative Justice Justice Reinvestment Stop and Frisk and the Brady Act and programs such as drug courts community based violence prevention and halfway houses By examining the successes and failures of various innovations the authors demonstrate both the ability of rational planning to make successful improvements and the tendency of unplanned change to result in undesirable outcomes The result is a powerful argument for the use of logic deliberation and collaboration in criminal justice innovations

Conflicts in the Middle East and Africa Moosa Elayah, Bakeel Alzandani, 2024-03-21 This book explores the multifaceted dynamics between state and non state actors in public policy during and after conflict in the Middle East and Africa It offers case studies and policy relevant ideas for conflict affected areas to move forward in a more sustainable manner Following the Arab Spring revolutions civil wars have plagued the Middle East and North Africa region along with other countries in Africa The task of rebuilding peace and institutionalizing stability in conflict affected countries or fragile states emerging from conflict is a daunting uncertain and context specific task Yet focusing on understanding conflicts in the Middle East and Africa offers an important view of the role of non state actors during conflicts These regions feature the highest numbers of inter and intra state conflicts and the governments are more often contested than in the rest of the world The volume proposes different cases addressing the fundamental challenge of inclusion and cohesion of nonstate actors during conflicts By providing a comprehensive exploration of diverse perspectives it empowers readers to engage with the pressing issues facing these regions This is a useful resource for students and researchers in public policy and governance studies development studies and NGOs and Middle East and African Studies
