Chapters discuss key issues related to post genocidal periods those that need to be addressed in order to establish stability in a wounded land and populace as well as to prevent future genocides The final chapter asks whether bringing perpetrators to justice has any impact in breaking impunity ensuring deterrence and bringing about reconciliation The contributors to the volume are all noted scholars some of whom specialize in the study of genocide and others who specialize in such areas as early warning peacekeeping and sanctions

International Organizations and Military Affairs Hylke Dijkstra, 2016-02-05 From the UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations to the NATO International Staff and the European External Action Service international bureaucrats make decisions that affect life and death In carrying out their functions these officials not only facilitate the work of the member states but also pursue their own distinct agendas This book analyzes how states seek to control secretariats when it comes to military operations by international organizations It introduces an innovative theoretical framework that identifies different types of control mechanisms The book presents six empirical chapters on the UN NATO and EU secretariats It provides new data from a unique dataset and in depth interviews It shows that member states employ a wide range of control mechanisms to reduce the potential loss of influence They frequently forfeit the gains of delegation to avoid becoming dependent on the work of secretariats Yet while states invest heavily in control this book also argues that they cannot benefit from the services of secretariats and keep full control over outcomes in international organizations In their delegation and control decisions states face trade offs and have to weigh different cost categories the costs of policy administrative capacity and agency loss This book will be of interest to scholars postgraduates and officials in international organizations and national governments dealing with questions of international political economy security studies and military affairs War, Peace and Organizational Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2020-09-17 In this double blind peer reviewed volume expert contributors draw upon philosophers such as Aristotle Alasdair MacIntyre and Emmanuel Levinas in order to explore how the ethics of war and peace resonate with organizational ethics The Oxford Handbook on the United Nations Thomas G. Weiss, Sam Daws, 2018-06-28 This Handbook provides in one volume an authoritative and independent treatment of the UN's seventy year history written by an international cast of more than 50 distinguished scholars analysts and practitioners It provides a clear and penetrating examination of the UN's development since 1945 and the challenges and opportunities now facing the organization It assesses the implications for the UN of rapid changes in the world from technological innovation to shifting foreign policy priorities and the UN's future place in a changing multilateral landscape Citations and additional readings contain a wealth of primary and secondary references to the history politics and law of the world organization This key reference also contains appendices of the UN Charter the Statute of the International Court of Justice and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights International Peacekeeping Boris Kondoch, 2017-05-15 Peacekeeping has been the technique most frequently used by and associated with the United Nations to end conflicts and to preserve peace In addition international and regional organizations have also performed peacekeeping functions Since the establishment of the first UN peacekeeping mission UNEF I in 1956 international lawyers have raised questions about the legal aspects of these operations Traditionally they analyzed the constitutional basis for peacekeeping and tried to allocate the authority under the UN Charter for peacekeeping among the Security Council the General Assembly and the Secretary General They discussed the use of force by peacekeepers the applicability of international humanitarian law as well as the responsibilities and liabilities of peacekeepers Since the end of the cold war peacekeeping operations have become more complex In the first forty years peacekeepers functioned mainly as buffer zones between warring parties and monitored cease fires Nowadays they are increasingly engaged in internal rather than international conflicts and perform a multitude of tasks Among others they act as civilian administrators oversee elections and monitor human rights These changes have raised new legal problems Which human rights obligations exist for peacekeepers Do peacekeepers have to intervene if they witness war crimes and acts of genocide How are they protected under international law What is the legal framework of UN administrations like in Kosovo and East Timor In order to enhance a better understanding of these legal issues arising from peacekeeping operations a collection of articles written by the leading experts in the field have been compiled in the volume International Peacekeeping Peacebuilding Rob Jenkins, 2013 The emergence of The United Nations Peacebuilding Commission PBC in 2005 was the culmination of a long and contentious process In this work Rob Jenkins provides a concise introduction that traces the origins and evolution of peacebuilding as a concept the creation and functioning of the PBC as an institution and the complicated relationship between these two processes Jenkins discusses how continued contestation over what exactly peacebuilding is and how its objectives can most effectively be achieved influenced the institutional design and de facto functioning of the PBC its structure mandate and origins He then moves on to examine the peacebuilding architecture in action and analyses the role that the PBC has carved out for itself reflecting on the future prospects for the organization The theory and practice of peacebuilding has assumed increasing importance over the last decade and this work is essential reading for all students of conflict resolution peace studies and international relations
