Report From Ground Zero:

Report from Ground Zero Dennis Smith, 2003-02-25 The tragic events of September 11 2001 forever altered the American landscape both figuratively and literally Immediately after the jets struck the twin towers of the World Trade Center Dennis Smith a former firefighter reported to Manhattan's Ladder Co 16 to volunteer in the rescue efforts In the weeks that followed Smith was present on the front lines attending to the wounded sifting through the wreckage and mourning with New York's devastated fire and police departments This is Smith's vivid account of the rescue efforts by the fire and police departments and emergency medical teams as they rushed to face a disaster that would claim thousands of lives Smith takes readers inside the minds and lives of the rescuers at Ground Zero as he shares stories about these heroic individuals and the effect their loss had on their families and their companies It is says Smith the real and living history of the worst day in America since Pearl Harbor Written with drama and urgency Report from Ground Zero honors the men and women who in America's darkest hours redefined our understanding of courage

Report from Ground Zero Dennis Smith, 2002 Report from Ground Zero Dennis Smith, 2002 Immediately after two hijacked jets struck the twin towers of the World Trade Center on the morning of September 11 2001 Dennis Smith a retired firefighter who had served eighteen years with the New York City Fire Department reported to Manhattan's Ladder Co 16 to volunteer in the rescue effort Among those missing were 343 firefighters many of whom were his friends and longtime colleagues Smith uses his unique background as both respected writer and experienced firefighter to tell the story of the disaster and its aftermath as only an insider could do This account opens with astonishing first person testimonies from dozens of the rescuers who were present as the towers were attacked evacuated and then fell We hear harrowing stories of death and heroism and miraculous stories of survival We share the grief of the families of firefighters awaiting word of their loved ones fate Report From Ground Zero is the most detailed and immediate record we will have of this unforgettable event that has permanently altered the character of America

The Shock of the News Brian A. Monahan, 2010-03-29 How did the events of September 11 2001 come to be thought of as 9 11 The Shock of the News is an authoritative account of post 9 11 political and social processes offering an in depth analysis of the media coverage of this momentous event Brian Monahan demonstrates how 9 11 has been transformed into a morality tale centered on patriotism victimization and heroes Introducing the idea of public drama as a way of making sense of how media processed and packaged the 9 11 attacks for their audiences Monahan not only illuminates how and why the coverage took shape as it did but also provides us with new insights into the social cultural and political consequences of the attacks and their aftermath Monahan explains how and why 9 11 became such a potent symbol exploring how meanings and symbols get created reinforced and disseminated in modern society Ultimately Monahan offers an important new understanding of this singular event of our time and his compelling narrative brings the momentous events back into focus
