

Reprenons le pouvoir !

Il y a vingt ans Apple entamait avec le retour de Steve Jobs sa seconde vie. Google et Amazon étaient des start-up et Facebook n'existait pas. Vingt ans après, les GAFA font partie des entreprises les plus puissantes au monde.

N'avons-nous pas fait preuve de naïveté face à ces jeunes pousses qui se réclamaient de la liberté d'entreprendre et de l'innovation ? Peut-on encore lutter contre ces empires plébiscités par les consommateurs et aux ambitions sans limite ?

Joëlle Toledano montre dans ce livre comment les GAFA arrivent à s'extraire du droit commun, à verrouiller la concurrence, à définir leurs propres règles en s'appuyant sur l'efficacité des outils numériques. Dénonçant notre retard face à ces entreprises sophistiquées et agiles, elle nous exhorte à comprendre ce nouveau monde et à reprendre l'initiative.

La transformation numérique est rapide, bouleverse les chaînes de valeur. Les intérêts de court terme sont souvent opposés à ceux de long terme, d'où les difficultés à définir l'intérêt général. Donnons-nous les moyens de fabriquer les institutions du xx^e siècle au service du bien commun !

Joëlle Toledano, économiste, est reconnue en Europe comme une spécialiste de la régulation des marchés. Elle a été membre du collège de l'Autorité de régulation des communications électroniques et des postes (ARCEP, 2005-2011) et a occupé des fonctions importantes dans de grands groupes français. Aujourd'hui, professeure émérite associée à la chaire « Gouvernance et régulation » à Dauphine, elle est au « board » de plusieurs jeunes pousses du numérique.

is not to desire Arnaud Maurel, 2023-01-09 Desire is human we desire all the time and without desire the objective of our lives is not determined we will live only because we have been given life lost in the middle of a vast space of possibility Nevertheless it seems farfetched to think that because we desire we will be able to have the end of our means Life is about encounters unexpected events successes and failures Consequently some of our desires can never be realized it is a question in this speech of managing to rethink our being in the vast world of the desires and this work passes by a retrospective of the history of the dominations then of a philosophical work where we will rethink our being and its finality at once spiritual social and intellectual
