N. Ross,Deanne E. B. Ross,2008-09-22

Two and a half years after the devastation of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita New Orleans and south Louisiana continue to struggle in an unsettled gumbo of environmental social and rebuilding chaos Citizens await the fruition of four successive recovery and reconstruction planning processes and the realization of essential infrastructure repairs Repopulation in Orleans Parish has slowed considerably the parish remains at best two thirds of its former size thousands of former residents who wish to return face barriers of many kinds Heroic efforts at rebuilding have occurred through the efforts of individual neighborhood associations and voluntary associations who have attempted to address serious losses in affordable housing and health care services Walking to New Orleans traces how a dominant but paradoxical model of the relation between the human and natural worlds in Western culture has informed many environmental and engineering dilemmas and has contributed to the history of social inequities and injustice that anteceded the disasters of the hurricanes and subsequent flooding It proposes a model for collaborative recovery that links principles of ethics and engineering in which citizens become active ongoing participants in the process of the reconstruction and redesign of their unique locus of habitation Equally important it gives voice to the citizens and associations who are desperately working to rebuild their homes and lives both in urban New Orleans and in the villages of coastal Louisiana

A Re-definition of Belonging? Ricky van Oers, Eva Ersbøll, Dora Kostakopoulou, 2010-03-08 Language and integration tests as a condition for naturalisation and various types of legal residence permits are topical issues in several European Member States The introduction of the tests reflects a change in ideas on the relationship between legal status and integration Since the introduction of the tests is a rather recent development little is known of the effects of the formalised testing schemes Whether the tests have in fact contributed to the integration of immigrants in the host society or whether they function as a mechanism for selection and exclusion is unknown In this book experts from Austria Belgium Denmark France Germany Hungary Latvia the Netherlands and the United Kingdom analyse the policies concerning the integration of newcomers and or future citizens in their countries

Yearbook of the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment/Annuaire de la convention européenne pour la prévention de la torture et des peines ou traitements inhumains ou dégradants Council of Europe/Conseil de l'Europe, 2020-11-23 The European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment was adopted by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe in June 1987 It entered into force in February 1989 and all 47 member States are Parties to the Convention The Convention has already established itself as an important human rights instrument Its approach is quite different from that of the European Convention on Human Rights Whereas the ECHR provides a remedy for particular human rights violations after the event the Convention for the Prevention of Torture ECPT seeks to prevent human rights violations through a system of visits to places of detention The Convention is intended to be an integrated part of the Council of Europe system for the protection of human rights placing a proactive non judicial mechanism alongside the reactive judicial mechanism established under the ECHR The Yearbook of the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture offers an essential annual overview of developments in relation to the ECPT Part One contains information on ratifications and other such issues in the authentic English and French texts Part

Two has details in English and French of the membership and activities of the Convention Part Three reprints the twenty fourth annual General Report of the ECPT covering the period 1 August 2013 31 December 2014 in the official English and French texts Part Four contains the ECPT s reports to States and the State responses thereto that were made public during the year in question The ECPT s reports are published in the official English and or French texts and State responses in the English and or French versions submitted by the States concerned Bilingual English and French 3 volume set     Special Acts and Resolutions of the State of Connecticut Connecticut,1929     Special Acts Passed by the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut Connecticut,1929     Special Acts & Resolves Connecticut,1929     The Electrical Engineer ,1903     CoDesign for Public-Interest Services Daniela Selloni,2017-03-20 This books focuses on co design and more specifically on the various forms co design might take to tackle the most pressing societal challenges introducing public interest services as the main application field To do so it presents an extensive study conducted within a particular community of residents in Milan this is a social innovation story integrated into the discipline of service design which simultaneously deepens the related concepts of co design co production and co management of services Drawing upon this experience and further studies the book presents the idea of a collaborative infrastructure and its related infrastructuring process in ten steps in order to explore the issues of incubation and replication of services and to extensively investigate the creation of those experimental spaces in which citizen participation is fostered and innovation in the public realm is pursued Lastly the book develops other lines of reflection on co design seen for example as a form of cultural activism as an instrument for building citizenship and as a key competence for the public administration and thus as a public service itself The idea of co design as a way to regenerate the practices of democracy is a recurring theme throughout the book co design is a process that seeks to change the state of things and it is intentionally presented as a long and complex path in which the role of designer is not only that of a facilitator but also that of a cultural operator who contributes with ideas and visions hopefully fostering a real cultural change     Qualitative Research Design For Software Users di Gregorio, Silvana,Davidson, Judith,2009-01-01 This book is an essential guide for anyone using qualitative data analysis software QDAS particularly useful for those who want to go beyond a basic introduction to discover how to get the most out of software and how to identify the methodological issues they need to consider     Flip This School John F.
