1. How did Hitler and the Nazi party work to keep the information that German people were resisting? In what ways did Gestapo and other law enforcement agencies receive?
2. How did Hübner know the BBC were the ones telling the truth? How did you tell the difference between truth and lies?
3. How did Hitler use fear to control the people? How did he try to keep you from something you might be doing? How did you know what was wrong?
4. Hübner says that if all the people who are against Hitler banded together, they could defeat him. Does he fight it? Do you think things could have been different if more people had the courage to speak up?
5. Have you ever felt so alone that you wondered if God was really there or not? What did you do about it? How do you, personally, know that God is there for you?
6. Is there a difficult experience that you have gone through that you would choose to go through again? Or if you had the choice, would you choose to skip it? Why or why not?
7. What kind of world do you want to live in? Do you want it, really, though it might mean it would be difficult, despite your fears and uncertainties?
8. Is there anything you would be willing to sacrifice for? What is it?
9. What are some of the things in your life that help give you courage?
10. The BBC radio announcer encouraged the people to have a faithing dinner to help them know they are not alone. Why is this so important? What are some things you can do to help and encourage the people around you?
