Bordone,2010 Mr Bordone received his MLS from the Palmer School of Library Science at Long Island University New York in 1997 He has served as a part time librarian at New Jersey s Montclair State University since 1995 a position he still holds today After working full time as the School Media Specialist at St Mary High School in Rutherford New Jersey for six years Mr Bordone served as director of the Bogota Public Library in Bogota New Jersey In December of 2003 he left Bogota to become a Reference Librarian at the Passaic Public Library in Passaic New Jersey Inspiration to write this book came from his desire to create a brief library history link to the library s webpage Besides reading James passion is computers history and animal rescue He currently lives in Guttenberg New Jersey with his mother and five cats This book documents a chronological history of a library whose roots can be traced to the Civil War period It tells the story of the library s growth from one to nine branches and back to its current status of only one branch documenting the interesting personalities who served it along the way Although the Passaic Public Library may be an ordinary library in an urban community in New Jersey it really is a microcosm of all communities in that it has witnessed an exploding growth of immigrants over the past century and has been challenged financially to provide for this growing community while at the same time it has struggled to keep up with the ever growing and ever changing trend of technology Despite these demands the Passaic Public Library has continued to fulfill its responsibility to the community and the immigrant community in particular by providing programs for both adults and children Education for Parenthood Behavior Associates,1977 Resources in Education ,1978 Social Salvage Porter Raymond Lee,1924 Encounter Anita Phillipson Robb,1982 Passionate Politics Jeff Goodwin,James M. Jasper,Francesca Polletta,2009-03-09 Emotions are back Once at the center of the study of politics emotions have receded into the shadows during the past three decades with no place in the rationalistic structural and organizational models that dominate academic political analysis With this new collection of essays Jeff Goodwin James M Jasper and Francesca Polletta reverse this trend reincorporating emotions such as anger indignation fear disgust joy and love into research on politics and social protest The tools of cultural analysis are especially useful for probing the role of emotions in politics the editors and contributors to Passionate Politics argue Moral outrage the shame of spoiled collective identities or the joy of imagining a new and better society are not automatic responses to events Rather they are related to moral institutions felt obligations and rights and information about expected effects all of which are culturally and historically variable With its look at the history of emotions in social thought examination of the internal dynamics of protest groups and exploration of the emotional dynamics that arise from interactions and conflicts among political factions and individuals

Passionate Politics will lead the way toward an overdue reconsideration of the role of emotions in social movements and politics generally

When I Wore S's on My Collar Henry Arrowood, 2024-09-12

When I Wore S s On My Collar is a collection of selected stories gleaned from the author s life journals over five decades The stories tell about some of the unforgettable people who impacted his life during his childhood and teen years in Tennessee and the Carolinas and the thirty one years he served as an officer in The Salvation Army in numerous appointments in the southern United States and the Caribbean Some of the stories are funny or at least they caused him to chuckle when the events happened and again when he wrote about them Some have sad elements of course because they deal with loss loneliness and hurt But mostly they are stories of people who blessed humored challenged inspired and encouraged him and others Some were characters some saints some both many of them possessing not only the joy of the Lord but the ability to laugh at circumstances at self at the idiosyncrasies and imperfections in even the most pious seeing humor in both the insignificant and the momentous occurrences of life but doing so without taking for granted or diminishing the sacredness of things spiritual and eternal
