Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez, 2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia

Feminism and 'The Schooling Scandal' Christine Skelton, Becky Francis, 2009-01-13 Brings together feminist contributions from two generations of educational researchers to provide a comprehensive overview of contemporary research and theory emerging from second wave feminism and assesses their impact on pupils and teachers in today s schools and classrooms

Life in Public Schools (RLE Edu L) Geoffrey Walford, 2012-05-16 Britain s public that is its major independent schools have a conspicuous role in the country s social system and as a result are the subject of a long standing political debate The discussion is generally founded on a stereotyped image of what these school may have been like in the 1950s this books shows how they were in the late 1980s It is based on fieldwork in two major public boarding schools which the author conducted over an extended period and draws on interviews observation and documentary sources to establish a picture of what public school life is actually like for pupils and staff Since the schools were predominantly male preserves the major part of the book describes the social world and experiences of boys and school masters An important section of the book however discusses the introduction of girl pupils the experiences of female teachers and the way schoolmasters wives tend to be drawn into their husbands work Geoffrey Walford s conclusions about life in public schools differ considerably from traditional expectations At the same time he asks whether there really has been a public school revolution His book makes an important contribution to our knowledge of public schools to debates in the sociology of education and to the issues of abolishing or extending the independent sector Competition Science Vision ,2001-05 Competition Science Vision monthly magazine is published by Pratiyogita Darpan Group in India and is one of the best Science monthly magazines available for medical entrance examination students in India Well qualified professionals of Physics Chemistry Zoology and Botany make contributions to this magazine and craft it with focus on providing complete and to the point study material for aspiring candidates The magazine covers General Knowledge Science and Technology news Interviews of toppers of examinations study material of Physics Chemistry Zoology and Botany with model papers reasoning test questions facts quiz contest general awareness and mental ability test in every monthly issue
