Written by experts in their specialist fields, the series creates a unique service for the active research chemist, supplying regular, critical, in-depth accounts of progress in particular areas of chemistry. For over 80 years, the Royal Society of Chemistry and its predecessor, the Chemical Society, have been publishing reports charting developments in chemistry, which originally took the form of Annual Reports. However, by 1967, the whole spectrum of chemistry could no longer be contained within one volume, and the series Specialist Periodical Reports was born. The Annual Reports themselves still existed but were divided into two, and subsequently three volumes covering Inorganic, Organic and Physical Chemistry. For more general coverage of the highlights
