Brooks, Missouri Group, George Kennedy, Daryl R. Moen, Don Ranly, 2010-11-10 It s a tumultuous time in journalism as media forms evolve and new models emerge There are few clear answers but no one is more prepared than The Missouri Group to tackle these issues head on and to teach students the core enduring journalism skills they need to succeed whether they write for the local paper a professional blog cable news or even work in public relations Mister Pulitzer and the Spider Kevin G Barnhurst, 2016-06-15 A spidery network of mobile online media has supposedly changed people places time and their meanings A prime case is the news Digital webs seem to have trapped legacy media killing off newspapers and journalists jobs Did news businesses and careers fall prey to the digital Spider To solve the mystery Kevin Barnhurst spent thirty years studying news going back to the realism of the 1800s The usual suspects technology business competition and the pursuit of scoops are only partly to blame for the fate of news The main culprit is modernism from the Mister Pulitzer era which transformed news into an ideology called journalism News is no longer what audiences or experts imagine Stories have grown much longer over the past century and now include fewer events locations and human beings Background and context rule instead News producers adopted modernism to explain the world without recognizing how modernist ideas influence the knowledge they produce When webs of networked connectivity sparked a resurgence in realist stories legacy news stuck to big picture analysis that can alienate audience members accustomed to digital briefs
