

Appendix 1. Interview Schedule

Preamble: Permission to record
Copyright waiver

Section 1 – Introduction:

- What position do you hold within the party?
- What are your main responsibilities?
- When did you become active in the party?

Section 2 – Issues and ideology:

- What do you believe are the main issues that the Liberal Democrats should be focussing on in the run up to the next election and beyond?
- Are there any specific local issues?
- On these issues where do you think the party stands in relation to the other parties? (Prompt: what about on a left-right scale) Thinking about the Labour and Conservative parties, which, if either, do you think the Liberal Democrats are closer to?
- What makes the Liberal Democrats distinct from the other major parties?

Section 3 – Relationship with other parties:

- In the mid 1990s, the party abandoned their official policy stance of equidistance between the Conservative & Labour parties, did this official change have any impact upon the outcome of this constituency in 1997?
- How do you feel about closer collaboration with Labour?
- Strategically, does it matter which of the other main parties are in power?
- Are the dynamics of local politics in this constituency different from national politics?

Section 4 – Electoral Support/Strategy (local and national):

- Who do you see as being the natural heartland of Liberal Democrat support (locally and nationally)? (prompt socially, attitudinally, regionally etc)
- Thinking about the seats where the Liberal Democrats do well, what is it that makes them different/winnable.
- How can the Liberal Democrats build on this electoral base? (Prompt: Is there room in the centre? Move to the left or right?)
- What do you think should be the electoral strategy of the party at the next general election? (which voters/seats should it target, what are expectations)

Nursing Research: Reading, Using, and Creating Evidence with Navigate Advantage Access Janet Houser, Kenneth Oja, 2024-12-03 Nursing Research: Reading, Using, and Creating Evidence, Sixth Edition, is a foundational text for teaching and learning the basics of creating and using evidence in nursing practice. Written in a conversational tone, the hallmark of this text is its readability and the author's skillfulness in simplifying otherwise complex topics such as evidence-based care, qualitative and quantitative studies, and translation of research to practice. Nurses need to demonstrate proficiency in reading research, determining its use in their practice, and participating in the research process. The Sixth Edition is intuitively organized around the three main competencies: reading, using, and creating evidence, all of which enable the student to translate research into evidence in a practical way. This text is intended to teach and support the clinical practice of students professional nurses returning to school and practicing nurses that must apply evidence to patient care
