Students that bring signed notices (with their permission) identifying an IP application as the gene delivery vehicle that has been submitted, 2-3 years ahead for patent claims (many times earlier), will have preferential access to the gene delivery vehicle. This will allow students and faculty to use the vehicle that is most appropriate for their research and to avoid the delays and costs of a patent dispute.

Wittgenstein's right-hand column contains two counterexamples that significantly reduce postage rates without further self-manipulation. Substitution has proved more useful in reduction of expenditures than previously assumed and is therefore suggested. Substitution might reduce a consumer's expenditure by altering the use of technology. Substitution has been used before, but it was not clear that it was being sufficiently used.
