ECEL2006-5th European Conference on elearning , Focus Group Interviews in Education and Psychology Sharon Vaughn, Jeanne Shay Schumm, Jane Sinagub, Jane M. Sinagub, 1996-01-18 This manuscript provides a blueprint for people conducting focus groups The examples are highly useful and in combination with the book give people the information they need to actually run a focus group Chapter nine is uniquely useful for educators who frequently work with children and teachers in school settings The concrete examples will be extremely helpful to focus group moderators The book will be useful for reference and for courses in survey research I will recommend the book for both purposes Kathy Green University of Denver This book does a nice job of providing readers with the specific steps necessary to conduct focus groups If a person had never heard of a focus group interview before reading this book they would have an excellent comprehension of the history specific methods and pitfalls of using the focus group interview methodology Thomas M Archer The Ohio State University Why use focus groups in educational and psychological research The focus group interview is a research tool that holds great promise for application in educational and psychological research Focus groups offer an effective way to obtain knowledge about what key stakeholders think and feel resulting in information that yields better surveys evaluations and research studies Although there are numerous books and articles that address focus groups most are directed at business and marketing Focus Group Interviews in Education and Psychology shows the specific steps to take to conduct focus groups in educational and psychological settings Through the use of numerous examples the authors show readers how to prepare for a focus group create a moderator's guide select a setting and analyze the results gleaned from focus groups In addition they devote an entire chapter to doing focus groups with adolescents and children Each chapter contains numerous procedural tables as well as end of chapter applications for performing trial runs of the techniques discussed Qualitative and quantitative researchers and students in education and psychology will find this book a useful guide for refining their research instruments and for opening new vistas to understanding their subjects responses Focus Group Interviews in Education and Psychology is an invaluable tool that is beneficial to researchers and professionals in research methods evaluation psychology education and social work Survey Research Methodology, 1990-1999 Graham R. Walden, 2002-09-30 Survey research is one of the most widely used research methodologies across the social and behavioral sciences Two trends that have had a major impact on the development of survey methods over the last decade are 1 the application of techniques and theories from cognitive psychology to the understanding and reduction of survey measurement error and 2 the application of new computer and telephony technologies to data collection and analysis These trends and other emerging issues from the 1990's literature on survey research methods are captured here in 617 detailed annotations to monographs journals government documents dissertations and ERIC documents Annotations include examples from business criminology education health and medicine law library science mass media military science political science psychology sociology social work religion and women's studies The bibliographic entries provide every useful element including series names complete subtitles and overall text page numbers as well as chapter page numbers The extensive annotations are more complete and more detailed than is typical for annotated bibliographies The descriptions include highlights of the study data and sufficient detail to enable the reader to make an informed choice as to whether to seek the full text Appendices include journals cited and the major survey research organizations The annotations are easily accessed through author and subject indexes Making Health Communication Programs Work (rev. Ed. ) Elaine Bratic Arkin, 2009-05 A revision of the original Making Health Communication Programs Work first printed in 1989 which the Nat Cancer Inst NCI developed to guide communication program planning During the 25 years that NCI has been involved in health communication ongoing evaluation of their communication programs has affirmed the value of using specific communication strategies to promote health and prevent disease Research and practice continue to expand the NCI's understanding of the principles and techniques that provide a sound foundation for successful health communication programs This revision updates communication planning guidelines to account for advances in knowledge and technology during the past decade The Practical Handbook and Guide to Focus Group Research Thomas L. Greenbaum, 1988 Program Evaluation in School Counseling Michael S. Trevisan, John C. Carey, 2020-02-28 Program Evaluation in School Counseling is the first book on program evaluation that looks to the field and literature of program evaluation and then relates methods procedures and practices back to the practice of school counseling Written by two accomplished authors who teamed up to build evaluation capacity among school and school based counselors internationally the book highlights their interdisciplinary work covering many years and several continents Based on the authors model for teaching program evaluation and their research on school counselor competence in program evaluation this concise clear and practical guide supports the continuing professional development of school counselors through training workshops and self study This book addresses the program evaluation knowledge skills and understandings that school based counselors are expected to use in line with the CACREP 2016 Standards The book is intended as a companion text for university courses in research methods and or in the organization and administration of counseling services It is also appropriate as a self study guide to help practicing school counselors develop expertise in evaluation
