Writing the War Charles Kiley, Billee Gray, 2015 As expansive as it is personal this chronicle of World War II is a firsthand account by a journalist and the woman he would marry of the dramatic events that engulfed the world in the middle of the twentieth century The correspondence between Charles Kiley and Billee Gray also tells the poignant tale of two young people in love but forced apart by the circumstances of war Edited by Charles and Billee's daughter son and son in law this never before published compilation of letters is a striking example of the heroic call to duty spirit that characterized the greatest generation Charles was a soldier journalist for the U S Army's Stars and Stripes newspaper and reported on the war from London Normandy Paris Reims Belgium and Germany As the sole reporter allowed direct access to Eisenhower's staff he was the only reporter on the scene when the German high command was negotiating its unconditional surrender on May 7 1945

Among his army newspaper friends and colleagues was Andy Rooney later CBS correspondent and 60 Minutes commentator Billee like many young women of her time witnessed the war years from the home front and filled vital civilian roles defense industry plant worker Red Cross volunteer war bonds salesgirl and civil defense plane spotter and wrote about it all in her letters to Charles Peppered with fascinating details about soldiers and civilians lives and including Stars and Stripes articles and personal photographs of the era Writing the War is both important history and a tribute to two remarkable people as well as their extraordinary generation The America I Once Knew!: Vanishing But Not Forgotten Charles L. Salm,2002 If you enjoy reading a perspective on life that can be only be obtained from a member of the Greatest Generation you have selected the right book Chuck Salm entertains you with a series of essays that will strike a responsive chord not only with his peers but also with patriotic Americans of all ages Forget political correctness and apologies for the wayward and the incompetent in our society Don t look for excuses that cover for our self serving politicians You may at times be offended even outraged You may also be delighted heartened and encouraged by knowing that someone out there thinks like you do and does not shy away from writing the very things you believe in To be sure you will be entertained every step of the way Read on Equity for Filipino Veterans United States.
