The instructions should be written as a “...steps (numbered) structure of instruction, based on the observation Moore (2011).” The instructions provided should include all things with step one. There is no instruction on how to turn on the device. There is a review of instructions at how to be successful provided in the conclusion.
2. There is no defined guideline for these instructions. With a clear guideline, that will depict the “...the level of difficulty your readers, future with thoughtful research.” If the target audience is for people who are familiar with technology, the instructions don't have to go as in-depth detail as if the target audience was asked for people that are not as tech-savvy. That the instructions would have looked like as follows.
3. There is equipment provided list. That should be in the beginning of the instruction manual. With the equipment list, it could have the reader with unanswered questions. What could address the like computer to support the recording? Questions such as that could be easily answered with an equipment list.
