Selected works of J. L. Vives. 3. De conscribendis epistolis Juan Luis Vives, 1989

J.L. Vives: De conscribendis Epistolis Juan Luis Vives, 2023-03-20 The study of Vives is mainly still dependent upon the well known Opera Omnia Valencia 1782-1790 8 volumes provided by Majansius Though this edition has manifest merits it cannot stand the test of present day criticism It does not offer a critical apparatus thus being useless for the study of the evolution of Vives' thought on the basis of the revisions he made in his publications Nor does it contain a systematically worked out apparatus fontium which makes it possible to assess Vives' knowledge of the ancient literature crucial for an accurate understanding of his humanist education and evolution Finally the legibility of Majansius' edition is impaired by the often misleading division into paragraphs rather idiosyncratic orthography and punctuation The aim of this series is primarily to provide critical editions Consequently the text is accompanied by a critical apparatus and an apparatus fontium supplemented with 3 indices an index nominum an index locorum and an index verborum memorabilium in which language use at variance with the Thesaurus Linguae Latinae will be indicated In addition an English translation with a restricted set of notes is provided The main consideration however remains the critical edition The notes to the translation do not replace the information compiled in the apparatus fontium So in using the present publication one should not restrict oneself to the right hand page a fact which the editors wish to emphasize

Luke's Rhetorical Compositions Paul Elbert, 2022-07-19 Luke's Rhetorical Compositions offers new ideas in Lukan scholarship especially in regard to Aelius Theon's first century rhetoric manual Progymnasmata and inter textual Lukan Pauline biblical studies Two chapters deserve special mention the material in chapter 3 is a groundbreaking discussion of Acts 2:38 in which its Greek verb tense speaks to the subsequent reception of the gift of the Holy Spirit following salvation not coincident with salvation In Acts 2:38 it is Luke's intention to portray Peter as promising the gift of the Holy Spirit to hearers and to those beyond narrative time as a Pentecostal experience Chapter 9 discusses Luke's use of progymnasmatic examples in his descriptions of the salvation experience It also discusses Luke's clarification of Paul using narrative persuasion from Jesus tradition and history Also Luke's use of basic soteriological vocabulary provides clarity and plausibility His distinctive selection of examples from the Jesus tradition and his duplication of Paul's soteriological vocabulary is very helpful
